

OMB # 0925-XXXX

Expiration Date: XX/XXXX

“SABV and the Health of Women and Men” knowledge check

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 10 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: NIH, Project Clearance Branch, 6705 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7974, Bethesda, MD 20892-7974, ATTN: PRA (0925-xxxx*). Do not return the completed form to this address.

Menu References Audio Un/Off

NIH National Institutes of Health
Office of Research on Women's Health

Module 1
Sex and Gender: page 6 of 33

What is the truth? For each of the statements presented, indicate whether you think it is true or false.

What's the truth? Question 1 of 3

Gender represents a person's identity as either biologically male or female.

True

False

Image credit: NIH SGMRO

©2019 NIH. All rights reserved.

PREV NEXT

Indicate whether you think each statement is true or false.

What's the truth?

Question 2 of 3

Sex is determined by environment, socialization, and caregiving.

True

False

PREV NEXT

Indicate whether you think each statement is true or false.

What's the truth?

Question 3 of 3

Biological factors alone determine gender.

True

False

PREV NEXT

Menu References Audio On/Off

NIH National Institutes of Health
Office of Research on Women's Health

Module 1
The Impact of SABV on Research: page 24 of 33

Let's see if you can identify true statements about the impact SABV has on research.
Read each statement and then select True or False.

What's the truth? Question 1 of 5

When only one sex is included in research on a condition that affects males and females, the information that results is incomplete.

True

False

©2019 NIH. Training Opportunity Info: Health

PREV NEXT

Menu References Audio On/Off

NIH National Institutes of Health
Office of Research on Women's Health

Module 1
The Impact of SABV on Research: page 25 of 33

Indicate whether you think each statement is true or false.

What's the truth? Question 2 of 5

Evaluating the effect of potential therapeutics in both sexes during the preclinical research phase increases the overall cost of therapeutic development.

True

False

©2019 NIH. Training Opportunity Info: Health

PREV NEXT

Indicate whether you think each statement is true or false.

What's the truth?

Question 3 of 5

A study can still be fully transparent and reproducible even if you don't control for biological variables such as sex.

True

False

PREV NEXT

Indicate whether you think each statement is true or false.

What's the truth?

Question 4 of 5

Examining a condition in one sex and generalizing results to both females and males may lead researchers to draw erroneous conclusions.

True

False

PREV NEXT

Menu References Audio On/Off

NIH National Institutes of Health
Office of Research on Women's Health

The Impact of SABV on Research: page 28 of 33

Module 1

Indicate whether you think each statement is true or false.

What's the truth? Question 5 of 5

Inclusion of SABV will maximize the knowledge gained from scientific research, and will minimize the risk of harm.

True

False

PREV NEXT

Menu References Audio On/Off

NIH National Institutes of Health
Office of Research on Women's Health

SABV Module 1 Review - Question 1 of 4: page 30 of 33

Module 1

You've completed the module. Now it's time to test your knowledge.
Select the correct answer, then select Submit.

Sex and gender are distinct, although related, concepts. Researchers must use the correct terminology and report their _____.

- Findings
- Operational definitions
- Transparent differences
- Rigor and reproducibility

Submit ▶

PREV NEXT

Select the correct answer, then select Submit.

What are some benefits of considering SABV?

- Uncover new information
- Improve reproducibility
- Increase transparency
- Generate meaningful data
- Produce effective treatments and health care.
- All of the above

Submit ▶

Menu References Audio On/Off

NIH National Institutes of Health
Office of Research on Women's Health

SABV Module 1 Review - Question 3 of 4: page 32 of 33

Module 1

Select the correct answer, then select Submit.

Sex and gender do not interact with other important variables, such as age.

- True
- False

Submit ▶

PREV NEXT

Menu References Audio On/Off

NIH National Institutes of Health
Office of Research on Women's Health

SABV Module 1 Review - Question 4 of 4: page 33 of 33

Module 1

Select the correct answer, then select Submit.

There are differences between males and females that can influence health and disease. Which statement below is incorrect?

- Females and males can experience different symptoms when having a heart attack.
- Osteoporosis is more common in females than males.
- Males are twice as likely as females to experience depression.
- Males metabolize alcohol quicker than females.

Submit ▶

PREV NEXT