Primary concern

What is your primary reason for contacting the Civil Rights Division?

Select the reason that best describes your concern. Each reason lists examples of civil rights violations that may relate to your incident. In another section of this report, you will be able to describe your concern in your own words.

Workplace discrimination or other employment-related problem

EXAMPLES

- Fired, not hired, or demoted for reasons unrelated to job performance or qualifications
- Retaliated against for reporting discrimination
- Inappropriately asked to provide immigration documentation

Housing discrimination or harassment

EXAMPLES

- Denied housing, a permit, or a loan based on personal characteristics like race, sex, and/or having children under 18 years old
- Denied an accommodation for a disability, including not being allowed to have a service animal
- Harassment by a landlord or another tenant, including sexual harassment

Discrimination at a school, educational program or service, or related to receiving education

EXAMPLES

- Harassment based on race, sex, national origin, disability, or religion
- Denied admission or segregated in an education program or activity
- Denied educational accommodations for a disability or language barrier

Voting rights or ability to vote blocked or affected

EXAMPLES

- Blocked or prevented from registering to vote, obtaining or submitting a ballot, having your ballot counted, or entering a polling place to vote
- Denied adequate voting assistance or accommodations for a disability at a polling place
- Restricted or prevented from participating in an election, including voting, becoming a candidate, or being elected for office

Mistreated by police, law enforcement, or correctional staff (including while in prison)

EXAMPLES

- Police brutality or use of excessive force, including patterns of police misconduct
- Searched and arrested under false pretenses, including racial or other discriminatory profiling
- Denied rights while arrested or incarcerated
- Denied access to safe living conditions or accommodations for a disability, language barrier, or religious practice while incarcerated.

Discriminated against in a commercial location or public place

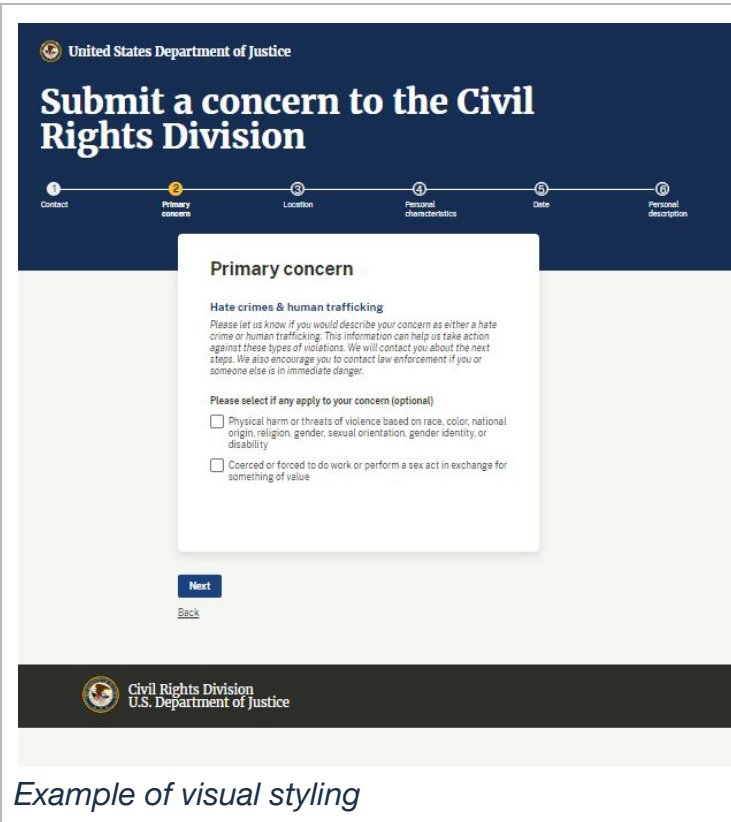

This could include a store, restaurant, bar, hotel, place of worship, library, medical facility, bank, courthouse, government building, public park or street, as well as online.

EXAMPLES

- A physical or online location that does not provide disability accommodations
- Denied service or entry because of a perceived personal characteristic like race, sex, or religion
- Threatened or harassed while seeking or receiving reproductive health services

Something else happened

The examples above reflect some but not all of the civil rights violations that we address. Select this option if you don't see an example that applies to your situation. You will be able to tell us more later.

Hate crimes and human trafficking

Please let us know if you would describe your concern as either a hate crime or human trafficking. This information can help us take action against these types of violations. We will contact you about the next steps. We also encourage you to contact law enforcement if you or someone else is in immediate danger.

Please select if any apply to your concern (optional)

- Physical harm or threats of violence based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability
- Coerced or forced to do work or perform a sex act in exchange for something of value
