The first banner is light blue and contains the text: "Starting 1/1/2018, and until further notice, FEMA will no longer send SMS/text messages. You will continue to receive updates by email or postal address." The second banner is yellow and contains the text: "Use the Transitional Sheltering Assistance Hotel Locator if you need a place to stay." Below the banners is a large search area with a white background and a blue border. It contains the text: "Enter your city and state or ZIP code to see if your area has been declared for Individual Assistance." Below this text is a search input field with the example text: "Example: 'Houston, TX' OR '77004' OR 'Houston, TX 77004'". To the right of the input field is a blue button labeled "Look-up". Below the input field is a note: "NOTE: Your address and personal data will not be stored." To the right of the search area is a circular "Top" button. Below the search area are three main navigation buttons: "Find Assistance" with a magnifying glass icon, "Apply Online" with a clipboard icon, and "Check Status" with a checkmark icon. Below these buttons is a section titled "Find Local Resources" with a location pin icon. The text below this section reads: "To find help for your immediate needs, please enter an address to get a list of the closest FEMA Disaster Recovery Centers (DRCs), starting with the closest three." At the bottom right of the page, there is a "100%" zoom level indicator.

Disaster Assistance Center

Español

English

If you are a disaster survivor, you may qualify for federal assistance.

The registration process will take 18-20 minutes. The process is authorized by the Office of Management and Budget under Control number 1660-0002 with an expiration of February 28, 2021.

- If you are applying for both home and business disaster assistance, complete one registration to cover both.
- If you are applying for multiple disasters, you will need to complete a registration for each disaster.

You'll need the following to complete your registration:

- Social Security Number (SSN), or, the SSN of a minor child in the household who is a U.S. Citizen, Non-Citizen National or Qualified Alien.
- Annual Household Income
- Contact Information (phone number, mailing address, email address*, and damaged home address)
- Insurance Information (coverage, insurance company name, etc.)
- Bank Account Information (if you are eligible to receive financial assistance, the money can be deposited in your account)

Note: You must provide an email address if you want to review your registration status online. If you do not provide an email address, you will be required to contact FEMA for any updates to your registration.

If you need further information or assistance:

Call the FEMA Helpline at 1-800-621-FEMA (1-800-621-3362). This number is also for users of 711 or Video Relay Service (VRS). TTY users can call 1-800-462-7585. Helpline services are available seven days a week from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. ET.

If you are having technical issues, call FEMA's Internet Help Desk at 1-800-745-0243. They are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

To learn more, review the Individuals and Households Program Unified Guidance. This provides policy and eligibility information for all assistance under the Individuals and Households Program (IHP). Visit the Individual Disaster Assistance page for more details. You may also view Disasters by calendar year or find other agency support by disaster.

Registration Instructions

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the registration instructions for the Disaster Assistance Center. The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://staging.disasterassistance.gov/DAC/ri/newReg.do>. The page header includes the logo for DisasterAssistance.gov and the text "ACCESS TO DISASTER HELP AND RESOURCES". A navigation bar at the top right contains "Disaster Assistance" and "Contact Us".

The main content area is titled "Registration Instructions" and features an "Application Progress" indicator with a series of dots. Below this, the text states: "The application process will take approximately 18 - 20 minutes. An asterisk (*) identifies required fields which you must answer to complete the registration." It also includes a "Paperwork Burden Disclosure Notice (FEMA Form 009-0-1)" and a note: "NOTE: Do not send your completed form to this address."

The instructions are followed by a list of steps:

- For help on any field click the Help for this page. This will provide helpful information about how to answer each question as you progress through the application.
- Read the information carefully and answer the questions on the screen. When you have read the information and answered all of the required questions, click the "Next" button at the bottom of the page to continue the registration process.
- As you progress through the registration process, the tabs at the top of the screen change. You can review any of the information you previously submitted by selecting the appropriate tab.
- You can cancel your application at any time by clicking "Exit Registration".

At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: "Exit Registration" and "Next". A note at the bottom of the page reads: "Note: It is important to know that your registration becomes a legal document. FEMA may use external sources to verify the accuracy of the information you enter. If you intentionally make false statements or hide information to try to get assistance, it's a violation of federal and state laws. This can carry severe criminal and civil penalties. Penalties may include a fine of up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (16 U.S.C § 287, 1001, and 3571)."

Privacy Act Statement and Declaration of Eligibility

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Disaster Assistance Center website. The URL in the address bar is <https://staging.disasterassistance.gov/DAC/ri/privacyAct.do>. The page title is "Disaster Assistance Center". The website header includes the logo "DisasterAssistance.gov" with the tagline "ACCESS TO DISASTER HELP AND RESOURCES". The navigation menu shows "Disaster Assistance" and "Contact Us". The main content area is titled "Privacy Act Statement and Declaration of Eligibility" and includes an "Application Progress" indicator with 10 stars. The text on the page states that FEMA is required by law to provide a copy of the Privacy Act Statement. It includes sections for "Citizenship", "AUTHORITY", "PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S)", "ROUTINE USE(S)", and "DISCLOSURE". At the bottom, there is a declaration section with a checkbox for "I accept the Privacy Act Statement and declare that I am eligible". Navigation buttons for "Back", "Exit Registration", and "Next" are visible at the bottom of the page.

Now, we want to know about your lodging, food, and medical needs. We'll also need to know about damage to your vehicle(s) and personal property.

Please have your insurance information available (home, flood, car, etc.) to add to your application. If you don't have your policy numbers right now, that is OK. You can give us that information later.

NOTE: Reimbursement for spoiled food is not covered by FEMA's Individual and Households Program (IHP). Contact your insurance company to ask about your coverage.

NOTE: We cannot provide money to individuals or households for losses already covered by insurance. Letters and Documents

You are almost done with your registration - just a few more questions.

Letters and Documents
You can choose how you want to receive alerts and information from FEMA.

- If you choose U.S. Mail, all documents and letters will be sent through the mail.
- If you choose email, all documents and letters will be available online.

NOTE: Email messages are alerts only. You will be required to check your account online for specific information about your registration. You can find out more information about creating an online account at the end of the registration process.

Review Page
The last page of the registration gives you a chance to review your information to make sure everything is correct. Once your registration is submitted, you can only make minimum changes online.

The Review Page also has a list of items that you agree to when you submit your registration online. Please read this page carefully before clicking the Submit button.

Review Registration Application Progress

OMB No. 1660-0002, Exp. 02-28-2018

Help for this page

You are about to submit your FEMA registration. Please carefully review the information below. Click Edit to make changes or click Submit to submit your registration to FEMA. You will only be able to make limited changes after you submit your registration.

By clicking Submit below I certify that:

- * Only one application has been submitted for my household.
- * All information I have provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
- * I will return any disaster aid money I received from FEMA or the State if I receive insurance or other money for the same loss, or if I do not use FEMA disaster aid money for the purpose for which it was intended.

I understand that, if I intentionally make false statements or conceal any information in an attempt to obtain disaster aid, it is a violation of federal and State laws, which carry severe criminal and civil penalties, including a fine up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C. §§ 287, 1001, and 3571).

I understand that the information provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance may be subject to sharing within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) including, but not limited to, the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

I authorize FEMA to verify all information given by me about my property/place of residence, income, employment and dependents in order to determine my eligibility for disaster assistance; and

I authorize all custodians of records of my insurance, employer, any public or private entity, bank financial or credit data service to release information to FEMA and/or the State upon request.
