Expiration Date: July 31, 2023

PRA Burden Statement

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The FDIC Financial Institution Diversity Self-Assessment (FID-SA) Application User Survey constitutes a collection of information under the Paperwork Reduction Act which has been cleared by OMB under Control Number 3064-0127 (expiration date July 31, 2023). Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average five (5) minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed and reviewing and completing the information collection. You can send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this information collection, including suggestions for reducing the burden, to the Paperwork Reduction Act Clearance Officer, Legal Division, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 550 17th Street NW, Washington, DC 20429; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (Re: Control Number 3064-0127), Washington DC 20503

Thank you for completing your diversity self-assessment! Your feedback is important to us. Please take a moment to answer some questions about your experience using FDIC's FID-SA application to complete your diversity self-assessment:

1. Overall, I thought FID-SA was easy to use.
(Multiple Choice Rating from: Strongly Agree, Agree, Disagree, Strongly Disagree)
2. I was able to navigate the application easily to complete all sections of the diversity self-assessment for my institution and submit it to the FDIC, my primary regulator.
(Multiple Choice Rating from: Strongly Agree, Agree, Disagree, Strongly Disagree)

Your feedback is valuable to us! Let us know your thoughts about how FDIC can improve FID-SA:
