Part II – Receivable and Payable Balances and Interest Between the U.S. Reporter and Foreign Affiliate (Continued)

Affiliate ID

Report all current and long-term receivable and payable balances and related interest ONLY between the U.S. Reporter and the foreign affiliate named in 4.

- Base data on the books of the U.S. Reporter.
- Report interest income or expense accrued in the current quarter (not year to date), GROSS OF WITHHOLDING TAXES.
- Exclude debt balances and associated interest with all other affiliated or unaffiliated entities.
- The current quarter's opening balance should be equal to the prior quarter's closing balance; therefore, if it is necessary to translate the balance into U.S. dollars, use the same exchange rate to translate the opening balance for the current quarter as was used to translate the closing balance of the prior quarter.
- · Include interest on capital leases.
- Include current and long-term items, indebtedness resulting from a capital lease, and the net book value of equipment under a long-term operating lease.
  - If leases between the U.S. Reporter and the foreign affiliate are capitalized, then include the outstanding capitalized value as an intercompany balance. Lease payments should be disaggregated into the amount that is (i) a reduction in the intercompany balance and (ii) interest.
  - If leases between the U.S. Reporter and the foreign affiliate are operating leases for more than one year that have not been capitalized, include the net book value. Lease payments should be disaggregated into the amounts that represent (i) the return of capital, consisting of the depreciation component for long-term operating leases, which should be reflected as a reduction in items 17 or 18, and (ii) rent or net rent, which is not covered by this survey.
- Derivatives contracts Exclude the value of outstanding financial derivatives contracts or any payments or receipts resulting from the settlement of these contracts. For example, the settlements of interest rate derivatives should NOT be reported as interest or as another type of transaction on this form. Derivatives contracts are covered by the Treasury International Capital
  (TIC) Form D, Report of Holdings of, and Transactions in, Financial Derivatives Contracts.

Do NOT net receivables and payables or interest income and expense.

Part V - Claim for Exemption

Affiliate ID

The affiliate is exempt from filing a BE-577 report if ANY ONE of the conditions specified in statements A–C below applies. Select the statement that applies and answer ALL adjacent questions.

The affiliate is exempt because ALL of the items below (not just the U.S. Reporter's share) were less than or equal to $60 million (positive or negative) during the affiliate's last four fiscal quarters. If 12 months of data are not available, give full-year projections.

- B. The affiliate is exempt because it is INDIRECTLY owned AND neither of the following items exceeds $1 million.
  - Foreign affiliate's end-of-quarter payables to the U.S. Reporter
  - Foreign affiliate's end-of-quarter receivables from the U.S. Reporter

What is the name and BEA ID number (if available) of the top foreign affiliate parent in this affiliate's ownership chain that is directly owned by the U.S. Reporter? Refer to examples on page 2.

009

- 3 C. The affiliate is exempt because ALL three of the following statements apply.
  - The affiliate is a private fund.
  - The private fund affiliate does not own, directly or indirectly through another business enterprise, an "operating company"—i.e., a business enterprise that is not a private fund or a holding company—in which the consolidated U.S. Reporter owns at least 10 percent of the voting interest.
  - If the U.S. Reporter owns the private fund indirectly (through one or more other business enterprises), there are no "operating companies" between the consolidated U.S. Reporter and the indirectly owned private fund foreign affiliate.

If the  $\underline{\text{U.S. Reporter}}$  owns this  $\underline{\text{private fund}}$  indirectly, what is the name and BEA ID number of the top  $\underline{\text{foreign affiliate parent}}$  in this  $\underline{\text{affiliate's}}$  ownership chain that is directly owned by the  $\underline{\text{U.S. Reporter}}$ ? Refer to examples on page 2.

The U.S. reporter's investment in the foreign private fund may be required to be reported on Treasury International Capital (TIC) surveys, review reporting requirements for TIC surveys at www.treasury.gov/tic.

Rules for Consolidation

Follow these rules to determine which foreign business enterprises may be consolidated on one foreign affiliate form.

Note: Foreign business enterprises that have an equity investment in an unconsolidated business enterprise should report that investment using the equity method of accounting.

Special Instructions for Reporting Unincorporated Foreign Affiliates of U.S. Reporters

U.S. Reporters that cannot distinguish between equity and debt investment in their unincorporated foreign affiliates: If your accounting records do not distinguish between intercompany debt (17 and 18) and equity 26, then:

- 1. Compute the net change in the home office account. This equals: End-of-quarter home office account minus beginning-of-quarter home office account.
- 2. Subtract net income (loss) 12 A, certain realized and unrealized gains (losses) taken directly to other comprehensive income or owner's equity 12 B2, and the quarterly translation adjustment 12 C.
- 3. If the amount computed in 2. is positive, show it as an increase in equity 19 B. If the amount computed in 2. is negative, show it as a remittance of earnings (13 A and 13 C) to the extent that there is quarterly net income; show the residual, if any, as a decrease in equity 20 B. 17 and 18 should be blank.

Special Instructions for Dealers in Financial Instruments and Finance and Insurance

Dealers in financial instruments (including securities, currencies, derivatives, and other financial instruments) and finance and insurance companies:

- Include in 12 B1: (1) impairment losses as defined by FASB ASC 320 (FAS 115), (2) realized gains or losses on trading or dealing, and (3) unrealized gains or losses due to changes in the valuation of financial instruments that flow through the income statement, and goodwill impairment as defined by FASB ASC 350 (FAS 142).
- Include unrealized gains or losses due to changes in the valuation of financial instruments that are taken directly to other comprehensive income in 12 B2. Include income from explicit fees and commissions in 12 A.

Page 10 FORM BE-577 (Rev. 2/2017)

Special Instructions for Real Estate Companies

Real estate companies:

Report gains or losses from the sale, disposition, or revaluation of land, other property, plant, and equipment, or other assets as follows:

Realized gains and losses

- Include gains or losses from sale of real estate in the ordinary course of trade or business in net income, 12 A.
- Do NOT include these gains and losses in 12 B1 or in 12 B2.

Impairment of long-lived assets

• Include impairment losses, as defined by FASB ASC 360 (FAS 144), and recognized during the period, in net income, 12 A, and in 12 B1.

Unrealized gains

- Include gains recognized due to the revaluation of real estate assets in 12 B1.
- Include goodwill impairment as defined by FASB ASC 350 (FAS 142).

Definitions

Affiliate means a business enterprise located in one country which is directly or indirectly, owned or controlled by a person of another country to the extent of 10 percent or more of its voting securities for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business enterprise, including a branch.

Branch means the operations or activities conducted by a person in a different location in its own name rather than through an incorporated entity.

Business enterprise means any organization, association, branch, or venture which exists for profit-making purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and any ownership of any real estate.

Direct investment means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly by one person of 10 percent or more of the voting securities <sup>of</sup> an incorporated foreign business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated foreign business enterprise, including a branch.

Foreign, when used in a geographic sense, means that which is situated outside the United States or which belongs to or is characteristic of a country other than the United States.

Foreign affiliate means an affiliate located outside the United States in which a U.S. person has direct investment.

Foreign affiliate parent means a U.S. Reporter's foreign affiliate that has an equity interest in another foreign affiliate of the U.S. Reporter.

Foreign person means any person resident outside the United States or subject to the jurisdiction of a country other than the United States.

Lease is an arrangement conveying the right to use property, plant, or equipment (i.e., land and/or depreciable assets), usually for a stated period of time.

- a. Capital lease A long-term lease under which transfer of ownership is recognized at the inception of the lease. These may be shown as lease contracts or accounts receivable on the lessor's books. The asset would not be considered to be owned by the lessor.
- b. Operating lease Generally a lease with a term which is less than the useful life of the asset and in which a transfer of ownership is not contemplated.

Person (as the term is used in the broad legal sense) means any individual, branch, partnership, associated group, association, estate, trust, corporation, or other organization (whether or not organized under the laws of any state), and any government (including a foreign government, the United States Government, a state or local government, and any agency corporation, financial institution, or other entity or instrumentality thereof, including a government-sponsored agency).

Private fund refers to the same class of financial entities defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission as private funds on Form PF: "any issuer that would be an investment company as defined in section 3 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 but for section 3(c) (1) or 3(c)(7) of ... [that] Act."

United States, when used in a geographic sense, means the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and all territories and possessions of the United States.

U.S. person means any person resident in the United States or subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

U.S. Reporter means the U.S. person that has direct investment in a foreign business enterprise, including a branch. If the U.S. person is an incorporated business enterprise, the U.S. Reporter is the fully consolidated U.S. domestic enterprise, which is defined as: (1) the U.S. corporation whose voting securities are not owned more than 50 percent by another U.S. corporation, and (2) proceeding down each ownership chain from that U.S. corporation, any U.S. corporation whose voting securities are more than 50 percent owned by the U.S. corporation above it. This consolidation excludes foreign branches and all other foreign affiliates.

Survey Information

Purpose – Reports on this form are required in order to provide reliable and up-to-date information on U.S. direct investment abroad for inclusion in the U.S. international transactions and the national income and product accounts.

Authority – This survey is being conducted under the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108 as amended) – hereinafter "the Act", and the filing of reports is mandatory under Section 5(b) (2) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 3104). All persons contacted by BEA in writing must respond pursuant to section 801.3 of 15 C.F.R. pt. 801 and the survey instructions.

Penalties – Whoever fails to report may be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $4,527, and not more than $45,268, or to injunctive relief commanding such person to comply, or both. Whoever willfully fails to report shall be fined not more than $10,000 or, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both. (22 U.S.C. 3105.) Civil penalties are subject to inflationary adjustments. Those adjustments are found in 15 CFR 6.4.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Respondent Burden – Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: Director, Bureau of Economic Analysis (BE-1), U.S. Department of Commerce, 4600 Silver Hill Road, Washington, DC 20233; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 0608-0004, Washington, DC 20503.

Confidentiality – The Act provides that your report is CONFIDENTIAL and may be used only for analytical or statistical purposes. Without your prior written permission, the information filed in your report CANNOT be presented in a manner that allows it to be individually identified. Your report CANNOT be used for purposes of taxation, investigation, or regulation. Copies retained in your files are immune from legal process. Per the Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, your data are protected from cybersecurity risks through security monitoring of the BEA information systems.

Accounting methods and records – Follow generally accepted U.S. accounting principles unless otherwise specified in the instructions. Corporations should generally use the same methods and records used to generate reports to stockholders, except where otherwise instructed. Generate reports for unincorporated persons on an equivalent basis. Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topics are referred to as "FASB ASC" in the instructions.

Retention of copies - Retain a copy of filed reports for 3 years beyond the report's original due date.

Retroactive reports – Quarterly reports for a year may be required retroactively when it is determined that the exemption level has been exceeded. If a foreign affiliate's total assets, sales, or net income (loss) exceed the exemption level in a given year, it is deemed that the exemption level will also be exceeded in the following year. A U.S. Reporter claiming exemption from filing a given report must complete the Claim for Exemption, giving the levels of total assets, sales, and net income (loss).
