Authority for maintenance of the system:

10 U.S.C. 503, Enlistments: recruiting campaigns, Air Education and Training Command Regulation 33-2, Recruiting Procedures for the United States Air Force, and E.O. 9397 (SSN).

Purpose(s):

To furnish leads to the field recruiters derived from the high school ASVAB testing program, evaluate Air Force recruiters on effectiveness of screening out potential under/overweight applicants, evaluate recruiter's and job counselor's activity and efficiency levels, analyze pre-enlistment job cancellations for common reasons, analyze post-enlistment training pipeline attritions for common reasons, evaluate Air Force job reservation pool and past enlistments for effect of potential changes in enlistment policies in areas such as mental qualifications and physical qualifications, evaluate interservice recruiting performance, screen other service enlistees from Air Force advertising lead files, determine pass/fail rates for mental and physical testing, track training performance of Air Force enlistees, study the correlation of job held with performance on the job, study correlation of quality indicators with post-enlistment performance, feedback to field recruiters of individual records on all training attritions, and analyze advertising responses.

Used by the personnel record maintenance activity to cross-check file completeness and accuracy. Individual records are aggregated into various statistical analyses for all levels to ascertain recruiting and seasonal procurement trends, to predict future potential developments, and to assist in the development of procurement, classification, and assignment policies for Air Force military personnel.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act, these records or information contained therein may specifically be disclosed outside the DoD as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows:

The `Blanket Routine Uses' published at the beginning of the Air Force's compilation of record system notices apply to this system.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage:

Records are stored in computers and on computer output products.

Retrievability:

Retrieved by name or Social Security Number.

Safeguards:

Records are accessed by person(s) responsible for servicing the record system in performance of their official duties and by authorized personnel who are properly screened and cleared for need-to-know. Records are stored in locked rooms and cabinets. Those in computer storage devices are protected by computer system software.

Retention and disposal:

Enlistment processing records and recruiter records are retained until no longer needed; recruiter personnel records are retained for one year after individual is removed from recruiter production status; potential enlistee records and high school test records are retained for two years or when no longer needed, whichever is sooner; advertising lead records are retained for two years after end of FY and interservice recruiting records are retained for three months after the end of the month case file was received by the recruiter. Records are destroyed by tearing into pieces, shredding, pulping, macerating or burning. Computer records are destroyed by erasing, deleting or overwriting. These retentions are built into the computer system program with automatic software controlled deletions from the machine-readable record.
