

Instructions for Contract Between Sponsor and Household Member

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-864A
OMB No. 1615-0075
Expires 10/31/2021

What Is the Purpose of Form I-864A?

Form I-864A, Contract Between Sponsor and Household Member, is an attachment to Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the INA. A separate Form I-864A must be used for each household member whose income and/ or assets are being used by a sponsor to meet the sponsor's income requirements. Each Form I-864A is completed and signed by two individuals: the sponsor who is completing Form I-864 and a household member who is promising to make his or her income and/ or assets available to the sponsor to help support the sponsored immigrants. The combined signing of this contract constitutes an agreement that the household member is responsible along with the sponsor for the support of the individuals named in this contract. This contract must be submitted with Form I-864.

Form I-864A may only be used when a sponsor's income and assets do not meet the income requirements of Form I-864 and the qualifying household member chooses to combine his or her resources with the income and/or assets of a sponsor to meet the requirements. The obligations of the household member under this contract terminate when the obligations of the sponsor terminate.

For additional information, see the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 213A and part 213a of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

What Is a Sponsor?

A sponsor is an individual who is required to complete and sign or has completed and signed Form I-864 on behalf of an intending immigrant. A sponsor must be an individual and may not be an enterprise, a business, or any other type of organization.

The following individuals may serve as a sponsor:

1. The petitioning relative;
2. A relative with a significant ownership interest in the petitioning entity; or
3. Another relative serving as a substitute in the case of a deceased petitioning relative or another individual accepting joint and several liability with the sponsor.

Who May Be Considered a Household Member for Purposes of Form I-864A?

For purposes of this contract, one or more of the following individuals may sign Form I-864A as a household member if he or she is at least 18 years of age:

1. The intending immigrant, if the sponsor seeks to rely on an intending immigrant's continuing income to establish the sponsor's ability to support the intending immigrant's spouse or children;
2. The spouse, parent, child, adult son or daughter, or sibling relative of the sponsor, if that relative has the same principal residence as the sponsor; or
3. Any other individual whom the sponsor has lawfully claimed as a dependent on the sponsor's most recent Federal income tax return even if that individual does not live at the same residence as the sponsor. If more than one individual agrees to help support the sponsored immigrant, each individual must sign a separate Form I-864A.

How Can the Intending Immigrant Be Considered a Household Member?

The intending immigrant may be considered to be a household member for the purposes of pooling income with the sponsor to meet the Form I-864 requirements in the following ways:

1. The intending immigrant has the same principal residence as the sponsor and the intending immigrant can establish that his or her income will continue from a lawful source, even after acquisition of lawful permanent residence; or
2. The intending immigrant is the sponsor's spouse and the intending immigrant can show that his or her income will continue from a lawful source after acquisition of lawful permanent residence.

Why Does a Household Member Complete Form I-864A?

A household member completes Form I-864 if the household member's income or assets will be used to demonstrate the sponsor's ability to meet the income requirements and to maintain the sponsored immigrant at an annual income at the level specified in INA section 213A(f)(1)(E) or section 213A(f)(3).

If the Intending Immigrant Is a Household Member, Must He or She Complete This Contract?

If you are the intending immigrant and the sponsor is including your income on Form I-864 to meet the eligibility requirements, you need to complete this contract only if you have accompanying dependents. If you are the intending immigrant and the sponsor is including only your assets on Form I-864, you do not need to complete this contract, even if you have accompanying dependents.

Age Limitations for Spousal Relationships Involving a Minor

Form I-864A can only be signed by individuals who are 18 years of age or older at the time of filing. If you are filing to adjust status based on marriage, are under 18 years of age, and have accompanying dependents, your petitioning spouse may include your assets on Form I-864, but not your income.

For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Signature. Form I-864A must be notarized by a notary public. Each contract must be properly signed before a notary public and filed. For all signatures on this contract, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. A legal guardian may also sign Form I-864A for a mentally incompetent person.

If you are under a guardianship, your legal guardian may print your name and sign Form I-864A for you. A legal guardian includes any individual who is appointed and authorized by law to protect your estate as a result of your incapacity. The legal guardian must present proof of the appointment as legal guardian of your estate and a copy of an order from the appointing court or agency specifically permitting the guardian to make your income and assets, as applicable, available for the support of the sponsored immigrant.

If Form I-864A is not signed or if the requisite signature on the contract is not valid, USCIS will reject the request. See 8 CFR 103.2(a)(7)(ii)(A). If USCIS accepts a request for adjudication and determines that it has a deficient signature, USCIS will deny the request.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten ink signature.

Filing Fee. There is no filing fee to file Form I-864A with USCIS. For information on processing fees when filing with the U.S. Department of State (DOS), see www.travel.state.gov.

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documents listed in these Instructions with your contract. If you fail to submit required evidence, USCIS or DOS may reject or deny your contract for failure to submit requested evidence or supporting documents in accordance with 8 CFR 103.2(b)(1) and these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application, petition, or request. After USCIS receives your contract and ensures it is complete, we will inform you if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment or, if you are currently overseas, instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to set up an appointment.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the contract to be provided;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your contract; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application, petition, or request. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS, your original documents may be immediately destroyed after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must also include the translator's signature, printed name, the signature date, and the translator's contact information.

This contract is divided into nine parts. The sponsor completes Part 5. Sponsor's Promise, Statement, Contact Information, Declaration, Certification, and Signature of this contract and the household member completes Parts 1. - 4., and 6. The information below provides detailed information to help you complete this contract.

Part 1. Information About You (the Household Member)

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. Full Name. Provide your full name.

Item Numbers 2.a. - 3. Mailing Address. Provide the address where you receive mail.

Item Numbers 4.a. - 4.h. Physical Address. If you reside in a location different than where you receive mail, provide the address in the space provided.

Item Number 5. Date of Birth. Provide your date of birth in the mm/dd/yyyy format.

Item Numbers 6.a. - 6.c. Place of Birth. Provide the city or town, state or province, and country where you were born.

Item Number 7. U.S. Social Security Number (if any). Provide your U.S. Social Security Number if you have one.

Item Number 8. USCIS Online Account Number (if any). If you have previously filed an application, petition, or request using the USCIS online filing system (previously called USCIS Electronic Immigration System (USCIS ELIS)), provide the USCIS Online Account Number you were issued by the system. You can find your USCIS Online Account Number by logging in to your account and going to the profile page. If you previously filed certain applications, petitions, or requests on a paper form via a USCIS Lockbox facility, you may have received a USCIS Online Account Access Notice issuing you a USCIS Online Account Number. If you received such a notice, your USCIS Online Account Number can be found at the top of the notice. If you were issued a USCIS Online Account Number, enter it in the space provided. The USCIS Online Account Number is not the same as an A-Number.

Item Numbers 9.a. - 9.f. Household Member's Bank Account Information. Indicate whether you are providing information about a checking or a savings account. Provide the account holder's name, the name(s) of any joint account holders (if any), the name of the banking institution, the number of your checking or savings account, and the corresponding routing number for the account.

Part 2. Your (the Household Member's) Relationship to the Sponsor

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. Select the item which best reflects your relationship to the sponsor.

If you select Item Number 1.a. (married to the sponsor), you do not have to reside with the sponsor, but you must provide proof that your income will continue from a lawful source after immigration.

If you select Item Number 1.b. (not married to the sponsor), you must provide proof that you currently have the same principal residence as the sponsor and that your income will continue from a lawful source after immigration.

If you are the household member completing this contract, but are not the intending immigrant, select Item Number 1.c., and select the box below that describes your relationship to the sponsor. If you select "Other Dependent," you must be listed as a dependent on the sponsor's most recent Federal income tax return. You do not have to provide proof that you have the same principal residence as the sponsor. If you select any other relative except for spouse, you must provide proof of the relationship and that you have the same principal residence as the sponsor.

Part 3. Your (the Household Member's) Employment and Income

Item Numbers 1. - 6. Your (the Household Member's) Employment. Select all boxes that apply to you. A sponsor may not rely on a household member's income from illegal activities, such as proceeds from illegal gambling or drug sales, to meet the income requirements, even if the household member paid taxes on that income.

Item Number 7. Current Individual Annual Income. Enter your current individual earned or retirement annual income that you are using to meet the requirements of this contract and type or print the total on this line.

You may include evidence supporting your claim about your expected income for the current year if you believe that submitting this evidence will help you establish an ability to maintain sufficient income. You are not required to submit this evidence, however, unless specifically instructed to do so by a government official. For example, you may include a recent letter from your employer, showing your employer's address and telephone number, and indicating your annual salary. You may also provide pay stubs showing your income for the previous six months. If your claimed income includes alimony, child support, dividend or interest income, or income from any other source, you may also include evidence of ability to maintain that income.

Item Numbers 8.a. - 9.c. Federal Income Tax Information. You must provide either an Internal Revenue Service (IRS) transcript or a photocopy from your own records of your Federal individual income tax return for the most recent tax year. If you believe additional returns may help you to establish your ability to maintain sufficient income, you may submit transcripts or photocopies of your Federal individual income tax returns for the three most recent years.

You are not required to have the IRS certify the transcript or photocopy unless specifically instructed to do so by a government official; a plain transcript or photocopy is acceptable.

Do not submit copies of your state income tax returns. Do not submit any tax returns that you filed with any foreign government unless you are claiming that you were not required to file a Federal income tax return with the United States government and you wish to rely on the foreign return solely to establish the amount of your income that was not subject to tax in the United States.

If you provide a photocopy of your tax returns, you must include a copy of each and every Form W-2 and Form 1099 that relates to your returns. Do not include copies of these forms if you provide an IRS transcript of Federal individual income tax your returns rather than a photocopy unless you filed a joint Federal income tax return with your spouse.

If you selected Item Number 4. in Part 3., that you are self-employed, you should have completed one of the following forms with your Federal income tax return: Schedule C (Profit or Loss from Business), Schedule D (Capital Gains), Schedule E (Supplemental Income or Loss), or Schedule F (Profit or Loss from Farming). You must include each and every Form 1040 Schedule, if any, that you filed with your Federal income tax return.

As stated previously, you must submit an IRS transcript or copy of your Federal individual income tax return for the most recent tax year. If you choose to rely on income from the three most recent tax years, you must submit an IRS transcript or copy of your Federal individual income tax return. If you were required to file a Federal income tax return for that tax year but did not do so, you must file any and all late returns with the IRS and attach an IRS transcript or copy of your late return and submit it with Form I-864A. If you were not required to file a Federal income tax return under U.S. tax law because your income was too low, attach a typed or printed explanation.

If you were not required to file a Federal income tax return under U.S. tax law for any other reason, attach a typed or printed explanation including evidence of the exemption and how you qualified for it. Residence outside of the United States does not exempt U.S. citizens or lawful permanent residents from filing a U.S. Federal income tax return. See Filing Requirements in the IRS Form 1040 Filing Instructions to determine whether you were required to file.

For purposes of this contract, the line for Total Income on IRS Forms 1040 and 1040A will be considered when determining income. For individuals filing IRS Form 1040 EZ, the line for adjusted gross income will be considered.

Obtaining Tax Transcripts. You may use IRS Form 4506-T to request tax transcripts from the IRS. Complete IRS Form 4506-T with the ending date for each of your three most recent tax years listed in Item Numbers 9.a. - 9.c. Follow all instructions for completing and filing Form 4506-T with the IRS.

Item Number 8.a. Select the box if you filed a Federal income tax return for each of the three most recent tax years and have attached the required photocopy or transcript of your Federal income tax return for only the most recent year.

Item Number 8.b. (Optional) If applicable, select the box indicating that you have attached photocopies or transcripts of your Federal income tax returns for your second and third most recent tax years.

Item Numbers 9.a. - 9.c. Most Recent Tax Year Total Income. Indicate the most recent tax year and your Total Income for that most recent tax year. If that amount was zero, enter “zero” or “N/A” for non-applicable. If applicable, select the Optional box indicating that you have attached photocopies or transcripts of your Federal income tax returns for your second and third most recent tax years.

NOTE: Do not leave the boxes for Item Number 9.a. blank. Type or print the most recent tax year and your total income for that most recent tax year. If the amount was zero, type or print “zero” or if you were not required to file a Federal income tax return type or print “N/A” for not applicable.

Item Number 10. Credit Report (Optional). You may provide a recent U.S. credit report if you believe doing so may help you to establish your ability to maintain sufficient income. Select the box for Item Number 10. if you are including a credit report with your Form I-864A.

Part 4. Use of Your (the Household Member’s) Assets to Supplement Income (Optional)

Complete Part 4. only if the sponsor is using the value of your assets to help meet the requirements of the affidavit of support. If you are using only your income to help the sponsor meet the requirements, do not complete this item.

If you are the intending immigrant and have no accompanying dependents, then do not list your assets on this contract. Instead, you must list your assets in Part 8., Item Numbers 6. - 9. of Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the INA, and do not need to complete this Form I-864A.

Only assets that can be converted into cash within one year and without considerable hardship or financial loss to the owner may be included. The owner of the asset must include a description of the asset, proof of ownership, and the basis for the owner’s claim of its net cash value.

You may include the net value of your home as an asset. The net value of the home is the appraised value of the home, minus the sum of any and all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home.

If you wish to include the net value of your home, you must include documentation demonstrating that you own it, a recent appraisal by a licensed appraiser, and evidence of the amount of any and all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home. You may not include the net value of an automobile unless you show that you own more than one automobile, and that you have not already included all of your automobiles as assets.

Part 5. Sponsor’s Contract, Statement, Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

Item Numbers 1.a. - 31.b. If the sponsor you are promising to make your income available to is sponsoring the principal intending immigrant (the sponsor should have “Yes” as his or her answer to Part 3., Item Number 1. of his or her Form I-864), you should list the intending immigrant in Part 5., Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. and then list any spouse and any and all children that are listed in the sponsor’s Form I-864 in the spaces that follow in Part 5. of Form I-864A.

If the sponsor you are promising to make your income available to is not sponsoring the intending immigrant (this should be true only in cases with two joint sponsors, with “No” selected on Part 3., Item Number 1. of his or her Form I-864), in Part 5., Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c., list any spouse and any and all children that appear on the sponsor’s Form I-864, in the spaces that follow in Part 5. of Form I-864A.

Also provide your daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). Every Form I-864A MUST contain the signature of the sponsor (or parent or legal guardian, if applicable). You must sign and date your Form I-864A before a notary public. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Part 8. Your (the Household Member's) Contract, Statement, Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

Item Numbers 1.a. - 6.c. Read the household member's promise carefully, type or print your name in the spaces provided in Part 8. then sign and date the contract before a notary public. If you do not type or print your name in the Signature section and sign and date the contract, the intending immigrant cannot be issued a visa or be granted adjustment of status based upon the income or assets listed on this contract.

If you are under guardianship, your legal guardian may type or print your name on Form I-864A for you to sign. See General Instructions for definition of "legal guardian."

Select the appropriate box to indicate whether you read this contract yourself or whether you had an interpreter assist you. If someone assisted you in completing the contract, select the box indicating that you used a preparer. Further, you must sign and date your contract and provide your daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). Every contract MUST contain the signature of the household member (or parent or legal guardian, if applicable). A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Part 9. Household Member's Interpreter's Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

Item Numbers 1.a. - 7.b. If you used anyone as an interpreter to read the instructions and questions on this contract to you in a language in which you are fluent, the interpreter must fill out this section, provide his or her name, the name and address of his or her business or organization (if any), his or her daytime telephone number, his or her mobile telephone number (if any), and his or her email address (if any). The interpreter must sign and date the contract.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 8.b. This section must contain the signature of the individual who completed your contract, if other than you, the sponsor or household member. If the same individual acted as your interpreter and your preparer, that individual should complete both Part 9. and Part 10. If the individual who completed this contract is associated with a business or organization, that person should complete the business or organization name and address information. Anyone who helped you prepare this contract MUST sign and date the contract. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable. If the individual who helped you prepare your contract is an attorney or accredited representative, he or she may also need to submit a completed Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative, or G-28I, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney In Matters Outside the Geographical Confines of the United States, along with your contract, if his or her representation extends beyond preparation of this contract.

Additional Information. If you need more space than what is provided in Part 11., you may make copies of Part 11. to complete and file with your contract, or attach a separate sheet of paper.
