Part 7. Sponsor's Contract, Statement, Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

NOTE: Read the Penalties section of the Form I-864EZ Instructions before completing this part.

By signing this Form I-864EZ, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign Form I-864EZ. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What Is the Legal Effect of Signing Form I-864EZ?

If you sign Form I-864EZ on behalf of any individual (intending immigrant) who is applying for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status to a lawful permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits Form I-864EZ to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under INA section 213A, these actions create a contract between you and the U.S. Government. The intending immigrant becoming a lawful permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as a foreign national likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I Choose Not to Sign Form I-864EZ?

You cannot be made to sign Form I-864EZ if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign Form I-864EZ, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a lawful permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing Form I-864EZ Require Me to Do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a lawful permanent resident of the United States based on a Form I-864EZ that you have signed, then, until your obligations under Form I-864EZ terminate, you must:

- A. Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (or 100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces other than active duty for training and the individual is your husband, wife, or unmarried child under 21 years of age.); and
- B. Notify U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865. Please see the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/I-865 for more information on filing a change of address as a sponsor.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a lawful permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864EZ that you have signed, then, until your obligations under Form I-864EZ terminate, your income may be considered available to that individual, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for state or local means-tested public benefits, if the state or local government's rules provide for consideration of your income as available to the individual.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act, such as emergency Medicaid; short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested public benefits programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the individual who becomes a lawful permanent resident based on the Form I-864EZ that you signed, that individual may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, state, local, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the individual who becomes a lawful permanent resident based on the Form I-864EZ that you signed, you are responsible for reimbursing the agency for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe. If you fail to reimburse the benefit granting agency upon request, you may be found ineligible to be a sponsor in the future.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the individual or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so. Please see the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/I-865 for more information on filing a change of address as a sponsor.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under Form I-864EZ will end if the individual who becomes a lawful permanent resident based on a Form I-864EZ that you signed:

- A. Becomes a U.S. citizen;
- B. Has worked, or can receive credit for 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act (SSA);
- C. Has abandoned or lost lawful permanent resident status and has departed the United States;
- D. Is subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
- E. Dies.

Your obligations under this Form I-864EZ also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your estate will not be required to take responsibility for the individual's support after your death. However, your estate may be required to reimburse a public benefit-granting agency for any means-tested public benefits that the intending immigrant received before you died.

NOTE: Divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864EZ.
