

Nonsubstantive Justification

SBA is revising the current forms in response to a change in eligibility required by the Paycheck Protection Program and Health Care Enhancement Act, Pub. L. 116-139 (April 24, 2020), and to make other policy changes.