

I. Small Business Pulse Survey Initial and Follow-up Emails

Initial Email

Email Subject Line: Official Request from the U.S. Census Bureau: Small Business Pulse Survey

A Message from the Director, U.S. Census Bureau:

As businesses and our nation collectively adapt to meet unprecedented challenges posed by Coronavirus (COVID-19), the U.S. Census Bureau is committed to producing critical information to measure the impacts to the economy and people of the United States. To better understand the needs of the many small businesses, we are reaching out to take our nation's economic pulse. Your answers can guide decisions made by federal officials and policymakers targeting aid, assessing programs' effectiveness, and facilitating America's economic recovery.

This is a short survey with 16 checkbox questions that should take 5 minutes or less to complete. The survey will assess your business' activities in the last week and since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Please use the following information to respond to the Small Business Pulse Survey:

Subject: Reminder: Official Request from the U.S. Census Bureau: Small Business Pulse Survey

Hello,

You should have received an email from the U.S. Census Bureau earlier in the week asking for your participation in the Small Business Pulse Survey, a short 16-question survey to understand how the COVID-19 pandemic may have affected your business. The results of this survey are essential for federal officials and policymakers to more precisely understand how the pandemic has affected our economy and nation as they seek to meet your urgent needs.

I understand you and your business may be facing unique challenges. Please take 5 minutes to let us know if/how your business is being impacted. Please use the following information to respond now:
