N	Not applicable, new question	We request to add a new question to assess all e-cigarette brands used by youth during the past 30 days. Many youth may use more than one e-cigarette brand out of convenience, so it is important to assess all brands used by youth, in addition to usual brands used. This question is modeled after existing question 40 (from 2019). However, the e-cigarette landscape is changing rapidly, resulting in re-evaluation of brands being included in this survey. As such, two brands (SMOK and Suorin) were added, and one brand (MarkTen) was removed. Finally, we will include a skip pattern after this quest. Respondents who only select one option to question 12 will skip to question 14. Only respondents selection >1 option to this question will be asked to specify their usual brand during the past 30 days. 12. During the past 30 days, what e-cigarette brands did you use? Additionally, we have added the response option, "I don't know the brand". This may be relevant to youth who do not know the brand of the device or the e-liquid that they currently use, and thereby reduce potential misclassifications. The question universe will change here, in which only respondents who identified using >1 brand during the past 30 days will be asked to specify the brand they usually used during this period. N	Not applicable, new question	We request to add a new question. E-cigarettes represent a class of products with potentially varying levels of nicotine. Additionally, previous literature suggest that youth may not know whether the e-cigarettes that they use contain nicotine. This question will assess whether youth believe the e-cigarettes they have recently used contain nicotine, and can be cross-tabulated with the two previous brand questions during analysis. The new question wording is below. 14. Did any of the e-cigarettes that you used in the past 30 days contain nicotine? A. Yes B. No C. Don't know

N	Not applicable, new question	We request to add a new question. Exposure to e-cigarette advertising is closely associated with e-cigarette use among youth. However, in 2017 and 2018, self-reported exposure to e-cigarette advertising in traditional channels (TV, retail, internet, print) declined among youth, while at the same time, use of e-cigarettes increased. Additionally, JUUL, a prominently used e-cigarette brand among youth, was heavily promoted on social media (including imagery of product use by influencers and other peer-to-peer marketing). The company spent more than $1 million to market its product on the internet in 2015 using social media channels. Thus, it is important to gauge social media exposure to e-cigarette advertising, specifically, including posts about these products that may not be viewed as traditional advertising or promotion by youth. 106. N	Not applicable, new question	We request to add a new question to assess sexual orientation among youth. Existing data show a clear patterns of higher tobacco product use among adults (NHIS) and high school students (YRBS) who identify as Lesbian, Gay, or Bisexual (LGB). However, the patterns and types of tobacco products being used among youth has changed in recent years. Thus, it is important to add this question in the NYTS to elucidate potential differences in knowledge, attitudes, and behaviors associated with tobacco product use among this population subgroup. The Youth Risk Behavior Survey (YRBS) has assessed this exact question since 2015. The Division of Adolescent and School Health (DASH) did not report any instances where a school or district chose not to participate in the YRBS because this question was included in the survey. DASH also provides opportunities for schools/districts to participate contingent on the omission of specific questions; Since this question has been included on YRBS, no schools have requested to participate with this question removed. Furthermore, item level non-response for this question has been lower than the average item non-response across the survey for participating students (ex: 2017: 94.3% of participating students answered this question, compared to an average of 88.2% for all YRBS questions). 116. Which of the following best describes you? A. Heterosexual (straight) B. Gay or Lesbian C. Bisexual D. Not Sure
