

The survey will be accessed in two ways:

1. Direct link received through an emails
2. On a banner on our data.census.gov resource page. This banner is accessible through census.gov and through the landing page under the Help button on data.census.gov.

Request to take the survey in our email responses:

Thank you so much for taking the time to share your thoughts with us about data.census.gov. We continue to make improvements to the site based on feedback that we receive from our users. Another way that you can provide this valuable feedback about your experiences with data.census.gov is through our survey, found here. If you have a few moments, please consider taking the survey to let us know what you think!

Banner message on data.census.gov Resource page: Help us improve data.census.gov by taking this SURVEY. Let's GO!

