Privacy Act Statement

The Foreign Claims Settlement Commission (the Commission) is authorized to collect the information requested on this form (or requested at any other time regarding this claim) under P.L. 114-328 §1705. The information collected will be used to enable the Commission to carry out its statutory responsibility to determine the validity and amount of the claims submitted to it under P.L. 114-328 §1705. Furnishing the requested information to the Commission is voluntary; however, failure to provide such information may result in either the delay of the adjudication or denial of the claim. Information collected may be disclosed pursuant to routine uses, published at 82 Fed. Reg. 21264 (May 5, 2017). Such routine uses include:

- To the Department of the Treasury in connection with the payment of claims;
- To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the federal government, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records;
- To a Member of Congress or staff acting upon the Member's behalf when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of, and at the request of, the individual who is the subject of the record;
- Where a record, either alone or in conjunction with other information, indicates a violation or potential violation of law - criminal, civil, or regulatory in nature - the relevant records may be referred to the appropriate federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, or foreign law enforcement authority or other appropriate entity charged with the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing such law;
- In an appropriate proceeding before the Commission, or before a court, grand jury, or administrative or adjudicative body, when the Department of Justice and/or the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission determines that the records are arguably relevant to the proceeding; or in an appropriate proceeding before an administrative or adjudicative body when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding.
