DESCRIPTION

Summary:
If your organization has just received funding for a new RHY program or is in the first year of federal funding to serve runaway and homeless youth, you are invited to participate in this Q & A session. This opportunity would also be helpful for new program managers, executives, or grant specialists unfamiliar with FYSB requirements.

Objectives:

- Participants will hear an overview of the Family and Youth Services Bureau (FYSB) and Office of Grants Management (OGM) structure and key personnel with contact information.
- Participants will hear an overview of the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act as reauthorized in 2008 and the Final Rule published in January 2017.
- Participants will hear an overview of the RHYPN Runaway and Homeless Youth Program Network.

After attending this session, please provide session feedback by clicking the link below. Please note that your participation in this survey is voluntary. Survey responses are anonymous and will be kept private. The purpose of the survey is to gather feedback on the session in order to improve the content and delivery of future training.
