

PROCEDURAL JUSTICE INFORMED ALTERNATIVES TO CONTEMPT (PJAC)

NONCUSTODIAL PARENT INTERVIEWS

Consent to Participate in the PJAC Evaluation – PJAC Noncustodial Parents

Hello, may I please speak to [NCP NAME]? This is [INTERVIEWER NAME]. I'm calling from MDRC, a nonprofit research organization, as part of a study about child support. We would like to interview you to learn more about your experiences with the child support program in [PJAC County]. This conversation will take about one hour of your time and we will mail you a $40 gift card as a thank you when you finish the interview.

The reason for these interviews is to learn how to improve parents' experiences with the child support program, about the different ways to help parents make regular child support payments, and about changes resulting from the coronavirus pandemic. The study is called Procedural Justice-Informed Alternatives to Contempt, or PJAC for short. The organization I work for, MDRC, leads the study with funds from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. This interview is not in any way related to custody or child support disagreements. Your participation in the interview will not affect your child support case or your chance of receiving public benefits or services in any way.

If you choose to participate, the information you provide will help child support programs in the future. When we are finished, I will mail you the $40 gift card as a thank you. Do you wish to complete this interview? [If yes, inquire whether now is a good time for the interview. If it's not, try to schedule an appointment for a later date.]

Before we start, I want you to know that what you say will be kept private. The research staff has been trained in protecting private information and neither your name nor your child's name will appear in any written reports from the study. Information from the interview will be used for research only. Your responses to these questions will not affect your child support case or your chance of receiving any kind of public benefits or PJAC Noncustodial Parent Participant Interviews

Do you have any questions? [Pause, and respond to questions if needed] Do I have your consent to continue?

If any questions come up during the interview, please feel free to ask them. You can also always call MDRC at 212.340.8614 if you think of questions later.

Finally, we would like to record this interview. Do I have your okay to record the interview? If so, if there is ever a time you would like the recorder turned off, please let me know.

[Turn on recorder, if participant is willing. Record consent and leave recorder on for the remainder of the interview. If participant is unwilling, ask if interview can be scheduled for a later time when a research assistant can join to take detailed notes. Request recording of consent only, for IRB purposes.]

NONCUSTODIAL PARENT INTERVIEW PROTOCOL

Participant Characteristics [NCP and case background]

We are talking to people with child support orders to try to understand their real-life experiences with the child support program. We want to learn what is good about the program and what could be improved. First, I'd like to ask some background questions about you and your children.

1. Let's start by confirming your name and age.
2. Since this study is about child support, please tell me a little bit about your children. How many children do you have? How old are they?
3. What are your children's living arrangements? For example, do they live with you, with the other parent, shared custody, with another relative?
4. Do you currently have a job? PROBES – What type of work? Full time or part time? How long have you worked there?
 - o Have there been any changes to your employment status as a result of the coronavirus pandemic? PROBES – How has this change affected your income? Your work schedule? If unemployed, are you collecting unemployment?
 - o If you were not working prior to the pandemic but were looking for employment, how has your job search been affected?

General Beliefs about Child Support

Now, I'd like to ask about your personal beliefs about the child support program in general.

5. Do you think that the current rules for the amount of child support that a noncustodial parent pays each month seem appropriate?
6. Do you think the child support programs makes decisions based on what is best for children?
7. Do you think that people at the child support office treat most people with dignity?

Experiences with Child Support (All NCPs)

I'd now like to ask you some questions about your experiences with the [Child support agency name], thinking only about your case involving [CP name]. Are you aware of the case I'm talking about?

8. Can you tell me the name of the youngest child you have with [CP Name]? Note that for the rest of the interview, we will be focusing on your child support case involving [Child Name]. Can you tell me about your relationship with [Child Name]?
PROBES: How frequently do you see [Child Name]? How do you feel about the amount of time you see [Child Name]? What do you like to do together? How do you feel about your relationship with [Child Name]? Are there things that you wish were different? How has the coronavirus pandemic affected the amount of time you see your child?
9. Tell me about your interactions with [CP Name], specifically related to parenting. For example, how frequently are you in contact with [CP Name] about parenting matters? How many children do you have with [CP Name]? PROBES: Do you spend time with [CP name] and the child(ren) together? If so, what do you do? How often do you and [CP Name] make decisions about your child[ren] together? What kinds of things do you make decisions about? Tell me about the last decision you made together. How has the coronavirus pandemic affected your relationship with [CP Name]?
10. Thinking back to when you first became involved with the child support program for your case with [CP name], what led to the establishment of the case? PROBES: What did it require from you? How would you describe the experience, for example, was it a positive experience, was it a negative experience, or would you describe it as something else?
11. Do you feel like you understand how the amount of your child support obligation was determined? PROBES: Are there things that you don't understand about the obligation? Can you describe some of the things that you believe helped determine the amount?
12. Do you think the order amount is fair? PROBES: If not, why not? If so, why do you think it is fair?
13. In the last year, have you made payments for this case through the child support office? Interviewer prompt: follow the yes/no branch below.
 - a. If yes, can you describe how regularly you made these payments?
 - Has the coronavirus pandemic affected how regularly you make child support payments?
 - b. If you never made payments/stopped payments through the child support office, can you describe why you didn't make payments/stopped making payments?
PROBES: Did someone from the child support office try to understand why you

- weren't making payments? Did someone from the child support office explain your options for getting back on track?*
- c. Have you ever made payment directly to [CP name]? If yes, probe about why NCP made direct payments to CP.
 - d. If you stopped making payments and then started again, why did you start making payments again? PROBES: Ask about changes in finances, changes in relationship with CP or child, actions by the child support office.
 - e. Have you ever provided for the child(ren) in other ways? (INTERVIEWER NOTE: depending on the response to this probe, ask about purchasing things like food, diapers, clothes, etc. for the child(ren) and try to understand the frequency with which this happens.
14. What would you say are your biggest challenges or barriers are to making child support payments?
- How has the coronavirus pandemic affected these challenges or barriers?
15. Have any changes taken place in your case with [CP Name] in the past year? For example, was the monthly child support amount increased or decreased? Was any back support or interest on back support forgiven? Were any changes made to visitation? PROBES: If so, when were those actions taken? How were those decisions made? Were you involved in those decisions or did you have a say? How did you feel about those decisions and the resulting actions?
16. Have any enforcement actions been taken on your case with [CP Name] in the past year? PROBES: What about things like license suspensions or property liens? Were you aware that those things were happening at the time?
- o If so, can you talk some more about that process? Do you remember when this took place? How did it affect you?
17. Have you been referred to the contempt process related to this child support case in the past year? PROBES:
- o If so, can you describe that process? When did it happen? Why did it happen? What was the process like? What was the end result? Did you feel like you understood the process and what was happening? How did you feel about the case going to contempt?
 - o If the NCP describes that their contempt case was active during the pandemic, probe about how their case has been affected.
- a. As part of the contempt process, did you have any involvement with the courts? PROBES – If so, can you describe a bit about that experience? Was a judge involved? Lawyers? Did you feel like you understood the process and what was happening?

18. Have you ever been referred to or provided with any additional services through [CHILD SUPPORT AGENCY NAME], either at the child support office or at another organization? Services might include things like mediation or counseling sessions, or employment and housing services. PROBES – If so, can you describe those services? When were you involved in them? How did you find out about them? Where were they located? Did you find them beneficial? How has the coronavirus pandemic affected your ability to access these services?

Experience in PJAC Services (PJAC Treatment Group NCPs Only)

19. The next questions are still specific to your case with [CP name]. These questions relate to the program that we are studying called Procedural Justice-Informed Alternatives to Contempt, or PJAC, that we described earlier. Your case became part of the new PJAC program in [RAMY - Random Assignment MM/YY]. This program is studying different approaches to help families pay and receive child support. How did you first find out about PJAC services? PROBES: Did a caseworker first reach out to you? Was it through a phone call, letter, text, other?

20. How was this new program described to you? PROBES: Do you remember any details of what was explained?

21. What did you think about the program when you were first told about it? PROBES: Were you happy? Unhappy? Indifferent? Did you have questions, and if so, what were they?

22. Did you ever take part in a meeting or negotiation with the caseworker and the other parent? You might have met in person, over the phone, or even had some back and forth communication through the caseworker.

23. Can you describe that meeting or negotiation? PROBES: Where did it take place? Who was involved? What types of things were discussed? Did you find the meeting helpful? Why/why not? Do you think it was beneficial to have communication between you and [CP Name]?

a. What things did the caseworker in the new program, called PJAC, do to help with your case? PROBES – Probe based on what was learned in prior questions about the case history to see if NCP attributes what they reported there to the new program. E.g. you mentioned that you had your order adjusted. Do you know why? Probe about if the help from the caseworker has changed as a result of the coronavirus pandemic.

- b. Did you begin or resume payments after the case became part of the new program? (Probe -Why did you resume payments?)
24. a. Has anything changed since the case became part of the new program in [RAMY]? For example, any changes in how frequently you're in contact with [CP Name]? What about in your relationship with your children? PROBES: If so, why do you think those changes occurred? How do you feel about those changes?
- b. Has anything changed about your view of the child support program? PROBES: If so, what has changed? Why do you think those changes occurred?

Perceptions of Child Support (All NCPs)

25. Now I'd like to hear more about your communication with the child support office regarding your case with [CP Name]. (INTERVIEWER NOTE: For control group NCPs say that we want to talk about your more recent experiences with child support, since around RAMY. For PJAC NCPs say that we want to talk about experiences since RAMY when they began the new program and provide RAMY to respondent.) PROBES:
- o Is there a primary person at the child support office that you normally interact with? Do you always know who to reach out to if you want information?
 - o What is the primary way you communicate with the child support office? (Phone, email, text, other)
 - o Do they contact you, or do you contact them?
 - o Are your communications with the child support offices returned in a timely manner?
 - o Have your communications with the child support office changed as a result of the coronavirus pandemic?
 - o If you have questions, are you able to get the information you need?
 - o Did any of your interactions with the [child support agency name] involve a situation where you and [CP Name] were meeting together? If so, was that in person, over the phone, or some other way? How did the interaction go?

Note for interviewers: if the parent identified that they had a primary caseworker at the child support office, direct remaining questions as experience with the parent's caseworker. If the parent does not have a primary caseworker, direct questions as experiences with people at the child support office.

26. Do you feel that you are kept informed when decisions are made by people at the child support office/your caseworker and about how those decisions are made?
PROBES

- o If so, can you give an example of a time you felt well informed? If not, can you give an example of a time when you didn't feel well informed or understand why something was happening? Do you feel that you understand why decisions are made?
27. Do the people at the child support office/your caseworker make sure that you understand everything that is happening with your case? PROBES –If so, can you give an example of that? If not, can you give an example of a time when you didn't understand what was happening, or why? How often do you receive written information? How often are you dealing with an automated system like a website or phone recording? How often are you interacting with an actual staff member? How do you prefer interacting with the child support agency – electronically, in writing, in person?
 28. In your experiences with the child support office/your caseworker, do you feel like you are treated with dignity and respect? PROBES – If so, can you give an example of when you thought that you were treated with dignity and respect? If not, can you give an example of when you did not feel that you were treated with dignity and respect?
 29. In your experiences with the people at the child support office/your caseworker, do you feel like your perspective is listened to? Do you feel like what you have to say is considered before decisions are made? PROBES – If so, can you give an example of a time you felt that your perspective was considered? If not, can you give an example of a time you did not feel that you were listened to or had your thoughts considered?
 30. Do you feel like the people at the child support office/your caseworker take sides when making decisions about your case? PROBE – If so, can you give an example of a time when the people at the child support office/your caseworker took sides? If not, can you give an example of how you think your caseworker/the child support office stay neutral?
 31. Do you feel like the people at the child support office/your caseworker has been helpful to you in taking care of tasks related to your child support case? For example, have they been helpful in scheduling appointments and keeping you updated on next steps? PROBE: If so, can you give an example of when you thought they were helpful? Do they make it easy for you to schedule appointments? Do they provide you with reminders about what the next steps are with your case? (Probe about methods of contact).
 32. Do you feel that the people at the child support office/your caseworker has the facts of your child support case correct? In other words, do you think there are errors in the child support office's records regarding your case? PROBES: If there are mistakes, do you think the caseworker on your case will work to correct those mistakes? If there were mistakes or difficulties with your case in the past, did your caseworker/child support office acknowledge it? Did they try to correct them?

33. Thinking about the child support program in general, do you think the child support program has been beneficial for your child(ren)? PROBES – What do you think has been beneficial? Why don't you think it has been beneficial?

Final Wrap-Up questions (All NCP participants)

34. Is there anything else about your case or experience with the child support program that we didn't cover that you think would be important for me to know?

35. Do you have any suggestions about how to improve the child support program? (and PJAC, if applicable).

Thank you very much for your time. Those are all the questions I have right now. We will mail you a $40 gift card within the next few weeks. Can you please let me know the best address for me to mail it to? Can you also confirm your name for me?
