PHONE OR WEBINAR INTERVIEWS OR ELECTRONIC SURVEY

Hello, my name is XXXX and I am joined by my colleague XXXX. We represent LinkVisum Consulting Group, who is conducting follow-up interviews on behalf of the Community Relations Service of the Department of Justice.

We appreciate your agreeing to interview regarding your participation in the CRS XXXX program held on XXXXXX. The purpose of the interview is to identify the impact and outcomes of the SPCP program and make recommendations for how CRS can improve its programs and services.

Let me share information and expectations about the interview. First, I will read the confidentiality statement to you.

Confidentiality Statement

- a. According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is .
- b. Your participation in this research study is voluntary. You may choose not to participate. If you decide to participate in this research study, you may withdraw at any time.
- c. The procedure involves completing an interview that will take approximately 60 minutes. We will also be taking notes.
- d. Your responses will be confidential, and we do not collect identifying information such as your name, email address, or IP address.
- e. The results of this study will be used for program enhancement purposes and may be shared with DOJ representatives and may be included in the agency's Congressional reporting requirements.

Questions

Before we get started, we have some questions.

1. Do you agree to participate and proceed with the interview?
2. Do we have your permission to record this interview?
3. May we contact you if we need to follow upon a topic, for example, to ensure clarity or elaborate on an idea?
4. Do you have any questions before we start?
