8. Affidavit of Support/Confirmation of Bona Fide Job Offer or Request for Job Portability Under INA Section 204(j) (Supplement J)

A. Affidavit of Support

Submit an Affidavit of Support (Form I-864) if your Form I-485 is based on your entry as a fiancé(e), a relative visa petition (Form I-130) filed by your relative, or an employment-based visa petition (Form I-140) related to a business that is five percent or more owned by your family.

B. Confirmation of Bona Fide Job Offer or Request for Job Portability Under INA Section 204(j) (Supplement J) that you are not inadmissible based on the public charge ground, if you fall into one of the categories listed below. See Form I-944 Instructions and Form I-864 Instructions for more information. Failure to submit a required I-944 or I-864, will result in a denial of your I-485. Please note that Form I-864W is no longer required, so you do not need to submit a separate Form I-864W with your Form I-485.

If you are applying for an immigration benefit with USCIS, you may need to demonstrate that you are not likely to become a public charge at any time in the future, under INA section 212(a)(4). A public charge is an alien who receives one or more public benefits, as defined in 8 CFR 212.21(b), for more than 12 months in the aggregate within any 36-month period (such that, for instance, receipt of two benefits in one month counts as two months). An alien who is inadmissible based on the public charge ground is an alien who is likely at any time in the future to receive public benefits, for more than 12 months in the aggregate within any 36month period (such that, for instance, receipt of two benefits in one month counts as two months), as defined in 212.21(b) based on the totality of the alien's circumstances. Adjustment applicants must submit Form I-944, unless exempt from the public charge inadmissibility ground, to demonstrate that they are not likely at any time in the future to become a public charge.

General Exemption from Filing Form I-864

If you are an applicant listed below in the Who Must Submit Form I-944 and Form I-864 section and would normally be required to file Form I-864, you may be exempt from filing Form I-864 (but not Form I-944) if:

A. You have earned or can receive credit for 40 quarters (credits) of work in the United States (as defined by the Social Security Act (SSA)), regardless of the immigrant category. (Attach your SSA earning statements. Do not count any quarters during which you received a means-tested public benefit.); or

B. You are under 18 years of age, unmarried, immigrating as the child of a U.S. citizen, are not likely to become a public charge, and will automatically become a U.S. citizen pursuant to INA section 320 upon your admission to the United States.

Who Must Submit Form I-944 and Form I-864

If you are a principal or derivative applicant, you must submit Form I-944 and Form I-864 with your Form I-485 if you are applying under one of the following immigrant categories (unless otherwise stated):

- A. Immediate relative (spouse of a U.S. citizen, parent of a U.S. citizen if the U.S. citizen is 21 years of age or older, and unmarried child under 21 years of age of a U.S. citizen);
- B. Other relative of a U.S. citizen or relative of a lawful permanent resident under the family-based preference categories;
- C. Person admitted to the United States as a K-1 nonimmigrant fiancé(e) or K-2 nonimmigrant child of a fiancé(e) of a U.S. citizen; or
- D. Alien worker under the employment-based preference categories ONLY if a relative filed Form I-140 for you or has a five percent or more ownership interest in the business that filed Form I-140 for you. Note that:
- (1) The relative who is the sponsor for Form I-864 must be your husband, wife, father, mother, child, adult son, adult daughter, brother, or sister; and
- (2) The relative who is the sponsor for Form I-864 must also be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or lawful permanent resident; however, if your relative is your brother or sister, a Form I-864 is only required if he or she is a U.S. citizen (but not if he or she is a lawful permanent resident).

Who Must Submit Form I-944 (and not Form I-864)

If you are a principal or derivative applicant, you must submit Form I-944 with your Form I-485 if you are applying under one of the following immigrant categories:

- A. Widow or widower of a U.S. citizen;
- B. Alien worker under the employment-based preference categories (Exception: You may also need to file Form I-864 if a relative filed Form I-140 for you or has five percent or more ownership interest in the business that filed Form I-140. See the list above for more details.);
- C. Alien entrepreneur;
- D. Diplomats or high ranking officials unable to return home (Section 13 of the Act of September 11, 1957);
- E. S nonimmigrants and qualifying family members (Form I-485 can only be filed by law enforcement agencies, not by an individual);
- F. Diversity Visa program immigrants; or
- G. Special Immigrants listed below:
- (1) Certain U.S. Armed Forces immigrants (also known as the Six and Six program);
- (2) Panama Canal Zone employees;
- (3) Certain broadcasters;
- (4) G-4 or NATO-6 employees and their family members;
- (5) International employees of the U.S. government abroad;
- (6) Religious workers;
- (7) Certain physicians; or
- (8) Certain employees or former employees of the U.S. government abroad.
- H. Applicants adjusting under the Amerasian Act (October 22, 1982).

Who Must Submit Form I-864 (and not Form I-944)

If you are a principal or derivative applicant, you must submit Form I-864 with your Form I-485 if:

- A. You are a VAWA self-petitioner, Victim of Qualifying Criminal Activity (U nonimmigrant), or a qualified alien as described in 8 U.S.C. 1641(c) (including, but not limited to, Human trafficking victim (T nonimmigrant)); AND
- B. You are applying for adjustment as an alien worker under the employment-based preference categories ONLY if a relative filed Form I-140 for you or has a five percent or more ownership interest in the business that filed Form I-140 for you. Note that:
 - (1) The relative who is the sponsor for Form I-864 must be your husband, wife, father, mother, child, adult son, adult daughter, brother, or sister; and
 - (2) The relative who is the sponsor for Form I-864 must also be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or lawful permanent resident; however, if your relative is your brother or sister, Form I-864 is only required if he or she is a U.S. citizen (but not if he or she is a lawful permanent resident).

If, at time of adjudication of the Form I-485, you no longer are in the category or status described in Item A. above, you may have to file Form I-944 in addition to Form I-864.

Who Does Not Need to Submit Form I-944 or Form I-864

You are exempt from the public charge ground of inadmissibility and do not need to file Form I-944 or Form I-864 with your Form I-485 if you are applying under one of the following categories:

- A. VAWA self-petitioner. However if you are a VAWA-self-petitioner adjusting as an alien worker under the employment-based preference categories where a relative filed Form I-140 for applicant or has a five percent or more ownership interest in the business that filed Form I-140, you may have to file Form I-864;
- B. Special immigrant juvenile;
- C. Certain Afghan or Iraqi national employed by or on behalf of the U.S. Government;
- D. Asylee;
- E. Refugee;
- F. Victim of qualifying criminal activity (U nonimmigrant) under INA section 245(m);
- G. Adjusting under any category other than the victim of qualifying criminal activity (U nonimmigrant) immigrant category INA section 245(m) or as an alien worker under the employment-based preference categories where a relative filed Form I-140 for applicant or has a five percent or more ownership interest in the business that filed Form I-140, but the applicant, at the time he or she filed the adjustment of status application, is in valid U nonimmigrant status.
- NOTE: This exemption only applies if, at the time of the adjudication of the Form I-485, you are in valid U nonimmigrant status. If, at the time of adjudication of the Form I-485, you are no longer in valid U nonimmigrant status, you may be required to submit Form I-944 and Form I-864.
- H. Human trafficking victim (T nonimmigrant) under INA section 245(l);
- I. Adjusting under any category other than INA section 245(l), or as an alien worker under the employment-based preference categories where a relative filed Form I-140 for applicant or has a five percent or more ownership interest in the business that filed Form I-140, but the applicant either has a pending application for T nonimmigrant status (Form I-914) that sets forth a prima facie case for eligibility, or is in valid T nonimmigrant status at the time the application for adjustment is filed.

NOTE: This exemption only applies if, at the time of the adjudication of the Form I-485, the Form I-914 is still pending and deemed to be prima facie eligible, or you are in valid T nonimmigrant status. If, at the time of the adjudication of the Form I-485, your Form I-914 is no longer pending a decision and deemed prima facie eligible, or you are no longer in valid T nonimmigrant status, you may be required to submit a Form I-944 and Form I-864.

- J. Applicant adjusting under the Cuban Adjustment Act;
- K. Applicant adjusting under the Cuban Adjustment Act for battered spouses and children;
- L. Applicant adjusting based on dependent status under the Haitian Refugee Immigrant Fairness Act;
- M. Applicant adjusting based on dependent status under the Haitian Refugee Immigrant Fairness Act for battered spouses and children;
- N. Lautenberg parolee;
- O. Applicant adjusting under the Indochinese Parole Adjustment Act of 2000;
- P. Applicant adjusting based on continuous residence in the United States since before January 1, 1972 ("Registry");
- Q. Individual born in the U.S. under diplomatic status; or
- R. Spouse, child or parent of a deceased U.S. active duty service military member in the armed forces under the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA);
- S. Other groups listed below:
- (1) Applicant adjusting under the Amerasian Homecoming Act (December 22, 1987);

- (2) Polish or Hungarian parolee; or
- (3) American Indian born in Canada (INA section 289).

Aliens Who Accompany-to-Join a Principal Intending Immigrant

If you are an alien who is accompanying-to-join a principal intending immigrant, you must submit clear and true photocopies of any relevant Form I-864(s) and attachments filed on behalf of the principal intending immigrant.

Aliens Who Follow-to-Join a Principal Intending Immigrant

If you are following-to-join a principal intending immigrant you must submit a new Form I-864(s), together with all documents or other evidence necessary as provided in Form I-864 and Instructions.

		In general, if you are filing Form I-485 based on employment, you do not need to submit Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the Act. However, you must file Form I-864 if your Form I-140 was filed by a relative who is a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident or by a for-profit entity if 5% or more of the ownership interest is held by a relative who is a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident. In this context, "relative" means a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident who is your husband, wife, father, mother, child, adult son, adult daughter, or a U.S. citizen who is your brother or sister
