Part 10. Information About Hardship You and/or Your Family Will Face If You Are Deported or Removed from the United States

Your responses in this part should be about you and/or your qualifying family members, except for your response to Item Number 11. A qualifying family member is a parent, spouse, or child who is a U.S. citizen (USC) or a lawful permanent resident (LPR) of the United States. When providing responses about a family member, provide the family member's name and his or her relationship to you. Where required, provide an explanation of your answer in the space provided in Part 15. Additional Information and reference the Item Number for which you are providing an explanation. Attach any documents you have to support the responses you provide below. (See the Instructions for types of documents that you may wish to submit.)

Part 10. Information About Hardship You and/ or Your Family Will Face If You Are Deported or Removed from the United States (continued)

NOTE: If you meet the eligibility requirements listed under Part 2. Application Type and you complete this application, you will be presumed to meet the extreme hardship requirement unless the evidence in your case record establishes that neither you nor your qualified relative are likely to experience extreme hardship if you are deported or removed from the United States. If you qualify for a presumption of extreme hardship, you do not need to submit documents that support your answers below regarding your claim to extreme hardship, but you need to provide explanations to your answers below.

1. If your children are American citizens or lawful permanent residents, do your children speak, read, and write English?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

2. If your children are American citizens or lawful permanent residents, do your children speak, read, and write the native language of the country you would be returned to if deported or removed?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

3. Do you or any of your qualified family members suffer from or have previously suffered from any illness, health problem, or disability that requires or required medical attention?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

If you answered "Yes," provide information about the health problem and whether you or your qualified family member suffer or have suffered from it. Also include any care you or the person receives in the United States that would not be available in the country to which you would be deported or removed.

4. Would you be able to obtain employment in the country to which you would be deported or removed?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

If you answered "Yes," explain the type of employment you would be able to obtain. If you answered "No," explain why you would be unable to find employment.

5. If you or a qualified family member are currently pursuing educational opportunities in the United States, would you or the qualified family member continue to pursue the educational opportunities if deported or removed from the United States?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

If you answered "No," explain why not.

6. If you are deported or removed from the United States, would all qualified family members accompany you?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

If you answered "No," list which qualified family members would not accompany you, why the qualified family members would not accompany you, and how that affects you and your family members.

7. Would you or your qualified family members experience any emotional or psychological impact if you were deported or removed from the United States?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

8. Would the current conditions in the country to which you would be deported or removed cause you or your qualified family members extreme hardship if you are deported or removed?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

9. Do you currently have any other way, besides this application, for suspension of deportation or special rule cancellation of removal, to adjust status to that of lawful permanent resident in the United States?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

10. If you belong to any civic, political, religious, community, or social organization, association, foundation, club, or similar group or participate in volunteer activities, would separating from these community ties and activities affect you if you are deported or removed from the United States?
 Yes  No  Not applicable

11. Is there any other types of hardship that you or your family would face if you are deported or removed from the United States? (Include any hardship to your children, spouse, parents who are not American citizens or lawful permanent residents, and to your brothers, sisters, grandparents, or other extended family members.)
