Required Evidence

As part of the naturalization process, you will need to provide evidence to support your application. These documents help us evaluate your application and verify your answers are true.

You are required to provide several documents now as part of submitting your application. You will also need to provide additional evidence, which you can submit now or bring to your naturalization interview.

Do not send or provide original documents to USCIS in the mail. Provide legible copies of your documents unless USCIS later requests original documents.

Required evidence Additional evidence

Additional evidence to support your application:

Including these documents can greatly make the application process easier, but you can also bring them to your naturalization interview if you do not have the original documents.

Tax documents - 3 years

Tax returns are not required for every application, but an interview officer may request them, especially if you are studying toward an advanced degree in a field or have traveled outside of the United States for 3 months or more.

Review 1

The image is a screenshot of the U.S. Department of Energy and Energy Efficiency Review website. At the top left is the U.S. Department of Energy logo. To its right, the text reads "U.S. Department of Energy and Energy Efficiency Review" and "Departmental Information". On the top right, there are links for "Home" and "About Us". Below the header is a navigation menu with tabs for "Getting Started", "About Us", "Our Goals", "Our Programs", "History", and "Energy Efficiency". Under "Getting Started", there are sub-links for "Introduction", "Energy Efficiency", "Energy Audits", "Energy Retrofits", and "Energy Savings". The main content area features a heading "Review of the Energy Efficiency" with a "Print" button. Below this is a paragraph of text, followed by a section titled "The Energy Efficiency" and a "Getting Started" section.
