APPLICATION OVERVIEW

Current Body Text

The Application for Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate Under Section 322 (N-600K) is used to obtain a Certificate of Citizenship for a U.S. citizen child who regularly resides outside of the United States.

A child may obtain U.S. citizenship if he or she meets all the following criteria to be eligible for citizenship under INA section 322:

1. The child is not married;
2. USCIS must administer the Oath of Allegiance to the child before reaching 18 years of age;
3. The child regularly resides outside the United States;
4. In the legal and physical custody of the U.S. citizen parent;
5. The child's U.S. citizen parent has been physically present in the United States for a period or periods totaling at least five years, at least two of which were after 14 years of age. If the U.S. citizen parent does not meet this requirement, the U.S. citizen parent's own U.S. citizen parent (grandparent) has to have been physically present in the United States for a period or periods totaling at least five years, at least two of which were after 14 years of age.
In cases where the U.S. citizen parent died in the preceding five years, and the N-600K has been properly filed on behalf of the child by the U.S. citizen grandparent or by the U.S. citizen legal guardian, the child does NOT have to be residing in the legal and physical custody of the person as long as the person who has legal and physical custody of the child does not object to the N-600K; and
6. The child is temporarily present in the United States at the time of interview in a lawful status pursuant to a lawful admission.

Fee: $1,170.00

The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application.

Refund Policy

USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request.

By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. You further agree that the filing fee, biometric fee, and any other paid costs related to this financial transaction are final and not refundable.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

The following is a list of documents everyone filing this form must provide:

- 2x2 passport photograph
- Child's birth certificate
- U.S. citizen parent's proof of citizenship

We will automatically determine which additional documents you need to provide as you fill out the application. The other documents you need will depend on the information you provide in the application, such as your personal history, family, and circumstances.

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

We may request that the child and the parent (or grandparent or legal guardian) appear at a USCIS office for an interview. At the time of any interview, we may require that you provide fingerprints, photographs, and a signature to verify your identity and update background and security checks.

If we approve your application, and you are over 14 years of age, you will be scheduled to appear at a USCIS office to take the Oath of Allegiance. If you are under 14 years of age, you may not be required to take the Oath of Allegiance.

Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form. If you do not finish your form in one session, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.

We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. Your responses will be saved for 30 days. You can sign in to your account at anytime to continue where you left off.

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this application, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) Section 322.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information is to determine if you have established eligibility for naturalization and issuance of a Certificate of Citizenship for a child who regularly resides outside the United States. DHS will use the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit you are seeking.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, including your Social Security number (if applicable), and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in denial of your application.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this application and any additional requested evidence with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses, as described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefits Information System, and DHS/USCIS-018 Immigration Biometric and Background Check] and the published privacy impact assessments [DHS/USCIS/PIA-056 USCIS Electronic Immigration System and DHS/USCIS/PIA-071 myUSCIS Account Experience], which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share the information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at 2 hours 5 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, gathering the required documentation and information, completing the application, preparing statements, attaching necessary documentation, and submitting the application. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to:

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Coordination Division

The child's current legal name is the name on their birth certificate, unless it changed after birth by a legal action such as marriage or court order. Do not provide any nicknames here.

Provide the child's name exactly as it appears on the child's Permanent Resident Card, even if it is misspelled.

Other names used may include nicknames, aliases, and maiden names.

Provide all the other names the child has ever used.

We will use the child's current mailing address to contact them throughout the application process. We may not be able to contact them if you do not provide a complete and valid address.

Street number and name
Apartment, suite, unit, or floor

If the child previously filed an application, petition, or request using the USCIS online filing system, provide the USCIS Online Account Number they were issued.

If the child previously filed certain applications, petitions, or requests on a paper form via a USCIS Lockbox facility, they may have received a USCIS Online Account Access Notice issuing them a USCIS Online Account Number. You can find this number at the top of the notice.

The USCIS Online Account Number is not the same as an A-Number. The USCIS Online Account Number was previously called the USCIS Electronic Immigration System (USCIS ELIS) Number.

Providing your child's unique USCIS Online Account Number (OAN) helps us manage your child's account. Your child may already have an OAN if you previously filed certain paper forms and received an Account Access Notice in the mail. You can find the OAN at the top of the notice; it is not the same as an A-Number.

The child's A-Number is located on their Permanent Resident Card (formerly known as the Alien Registration Card or referred to as the Green Card), and consists of a 7, 8, or 9-digit number.

The A-Number may be located on the front or back of the card, depending on when the card was issued.

Where to find the child's A-Number
 [sample A-Number card image]

Provide the name of the child's country of citizenship or nationality before the child became a U.S. citizen.

If the country no longer exists or the child is stateless, provide the name of the foreign country where the child was last a citizen or national.

If the child is a citizen or national of more than one country, provide the name of the country that issued the latest passport.

Provide information about the child's U.S. citizen parent. Provide information about the U.S. citizen parent even if you are filing this form as the child's U.S. citizen grandparent or legal guardian.

The parent's legal name is the name on their birth certificate, unless it changed after birth by legal action such as marriage or court order. Do not provide a nickname here.

Street number and name
Apartment, suite, unit, or floor

Provide the name of the country at the time of the parent's birth, even if the name has changed.

Name of court or USCIS office location

Include annulled marriages and marriages to the same person.

The parent's spouse's legal name is the name on their birth certificate, unless it changed after birth by legal action such as marriage or court order. Do not provide a nickname here.

Street number and name
Apartment, suite, unit, or floor

Provide the dates that the U.S. citizen parent or grandparent was present in the United States. If the U.S. citizen parent has not been physically present in the United States for five years (two years of which were after 14 years of age) then the child must use the physical presence of the U.S. citizen grandparent.

The grandparent's legal name is the name on their birth certificate, unless it changed after birth by legal action such as marriage or court order. Do not provide a nickname here.

Provide the name of the country at the time of the grandparent's birth, even if the name has changed.

Name of court or USCIS office location

Complete this part only if you are a legal guardian filing this application on behalf of a deceased U.S. citizen parent.

The legal guardian's legal name is the name on their birth certificate, unless it changed after birth by legal action such as marriage or court order. Do not provide a nickname here.

Provide the name of the country at the time of the legal guardian's birth, even if the name has changed.

Name of court or USCIS office location

As part of applying for U.S. citizenship and issuance of a Certificate of Citizenship, you will need to provide evidence. Documents help us evaluate your application and verify your answers.

You are required to provide several documents as part of submitting your application. You may also need to provide how you answered some questions.

Do not send original documents to USCIS in the mail. Provide legible copies of the documents unless USCIS later re-

Upload a copy or image of the U.S. citizen parent's proof of U.S. citizenship. This pertains to grandparents if the parent does not meet the requirement.
This may include:

- Birth certificate showing birth in the United States
- Certificate of Naturalization (N-550)
- Certificate of Citizenship (N-560)
- Report of Birth Abroad of United States Citizen (FS-240)
- Valid unexpired U.S. passport

Upload a copy or image of any document that proves the U.S. citizen parent's residence or physical presence in the United States if the parent does not meet the requirement. This proof may include, but is not limited to the following:

- School, employment, or military records;
- Deeds, mortgages, or leases showing residence;
- Attestations by churches, unions, or other organizations;
- U.S. Social Security quarterly reports; and
- Affidavits of third parties having knowledge of the residence and physical presence.

Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, is required, if available, at the time of interview for all children seeking citizenship who are eligible children of members of the U.S. Armed Forces.

If U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or USCIS issued Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record to the child, provide that the child's authorized period of stay expires or expired (as shown on Form I-94). The Form I-94 number also is on some versions of Form I-94. If the child does not have an I-94 number, one of the following scenarios may apply:

1. If CBP or USCIS issued Form I-94 to the child, but it is now lost or destroyed, he or she may apply for a replacement Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Document.
2. If CBP or USCIS did not issue Form I-94 to the child and he or she believes that Form I-94 should have been issued, contact the agency that should have issued it to attempt to resolve the matter.
3. If CBP did not issue Form I-94 to the child because it captured arrival information electronically, type or print "N/A" for Arrival-Departure Record Number. In this instance, it is important for the child to provide a passport or travel document number on the application. (See below.)

Note: If you were admitted to the United States by CBP at an airport or seaport after April 30, 2013, you may have been issued a CBP, instead of a paper Form I-94. You may visit the CBP website at www.cbp.gov/i94 to obtain a paper version of a Form I-94. There may be a charge a fee for this service. Some travelers admitted to the United States at a land border, airport, or seaport, after April 30, 2013, who were issued a paper Form I-94 by CBP, may also be able to obtain a paper Form I-94 from the CBP website, if they have a valid Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. USCIS does not charge a fee for a paper Form I-94.

If you used a passport or travel document to travel to the United States, enter either the passport or travel document number in the space on the application, even if the passport or travel document currently expired. CBP is exploring automation for the purpose of collecting arrival/departure information electronically, streamlining arrival and inspection for travelers. If this information is from an electronic passport (or, for travelers who do not have a passport, some other similar "travel document") instead of a paper document, the person filing this form must provide passport or travel document numbers - even if they have expired - instead of a Form N-600K.

Upload a copy or image of the child's marriage certificate that was issued and certified by a civil authority in the state where the child has been married more than once, upload a copy or image of all of their marriage certificates.

Upload a copy or image of the certified divorce decree, death certificate, or annulment document that terminated the marriage. If the U.S. citizen parent has been married more than once, upload a copy or image of all of their marriage termination documents.

Upload a copy or image of the U.S. citizen parent's marriage certificate that was issued and certified by a civil authority. If the U.S. citizen parent has been married more than once, upload a copy or image of all of their marriage certificates.

Upload a copy or image of the certified divorce decree, death certificate, or annulment document that terminated the marriage. If the U.S. citizen parent has been married more than once, upload a copy or image of all of their marriage termination documents.

Upload a copy or image of legitimation documentation from the country or state in which the child was legitimated according to the laws of the child's father's residence or the child's residence. The child must have been in legal custody at the time of legitimation.

For more information regarding legitimation, see the www.uscis.gov/policymanual/HTML/PolicyManual-Vol3-Part2-Chapter1-101.html.

Upload a copy or image of certified evidence of legal guardianship issued by the legal authority of the guardian's residence.

Upload a copy or image of any document showing that the qualifying U.S. citizen parent has legal and physical custody of the child.

Upload a copy or image of any document that proves that the grandparent is a U.S. citizen or was one at the time of the U.S. citizen parent's death.

If a legal guardian is filing this application, upload a copy or image of any document that proves that the grandparent has legal custody of the child at the time of the U.S. citizen parent's death.

Provide the following documentation if you have it:

1. Form I-600, Petition to Classify Orphan as an Immediate Relative; or
2. Form I-800, Petition to Classify Convention Adoptee as an Immediate Relative.

All adopted children seeking naturalization under INA 322 must have had either Form I-600 or Form I-800 approved and met the legal custody and joint residence requirement of INA section 101(b)(1)(E).

Upload a copy or image of the child's full, final adoption decree.

Upload a readable image of the legal document that formally changed the child's name or date of birth. This can be

- Marriage certificate
- Divorce decree
- Adoption decree
- Court document

If a required document is unavailable, you must provide a typed or printed explanation of the reasons that document is unavailable and provide secondary evidence to establish eligibility. Secondary evidence must overcome the unavailability of the required document by providing an original typed or printed statement from the appropriate government or other legal authority to support your claim.

The following types of secondary evidence may be submitted to establish eligibility:

- Baptismal certificate
- School record
- Census records
- Affidavits

Upload a copy or image of the certificate under the church seal where the child's baptism occurred showing the child's name and date of birth.

- Place of birth
- Date of birth
- Baptism date
- Parents' names
- Godparents' names (if known)

Upload a copy or image of an official letter from school authorities for the school the child attended showing their:

- Date of admission to the school
- Place of birth
- Date of birth or age that time
- The names of and residences of your birth parents (if shown in the school records)

Upload a copy or image of State or Federal census records showing your:

- Name
- Place of birth
- Date of birth or age

Upload a copy or image of the child's affidavits if other types of secondary evidence are not available.

An affidavit is a typed or printed statement sworn to by two people who have personal knowledge of the claimed event and the unavailability of both required documents and secondary evidence. Examples of events you may submit and affidavits for include:

- The child's place and date of birth
- Marriage
- Death

The people making these statements are not required to be U.S. citizens and may be relatives. Each affidavit must contain the following information about the person making the affidavit:

- Full legal name
- Address
- Place of birth
- Date of birth
- Relationship to the child
- Detailed information about the event to include how they came to know about its occurrence

h5. The child may not be eligible to file an Application for Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate Under Section 322 (N-600K)

If an Application for Certificate of Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate (N-600K) was previously filed on behalf of the child and the child received a decision from USCIS, you should not file this application again. USCIS will reject any newly filed Application for Certificate of Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate (N-600K). Review the decision notice for more information.

If USCIS already approved a previous Application for Certificate of Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate (N-600K) for the child, you should not file this application again. If you are seeking to replace a lost or stolen certificate, you should submit the Application for Replacement Naturalization/Citizenship Document (N-565).
