SECTION 4: SUSPENSION ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS AND MAXIMUM SUSPENSION PERIOD

Suspension eligibility requirements

You may qualify for a temporary suspension of the 8-year period for completing your TEACH Grant service obligation if you are temporarily unable to teach because you have a condition that is a qualifying reason for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

Note: To qualify for a suspension based on a qualifying reason for leave under the FMLA, you are not required to be granted leave under the FMLA. You must simply have a condition that would make you eligible for FMLA leave.

Qualifying reasons for leave under the FMLA are:

- Caring for your newborn child;
- Caring for your newly adopted child or a foster child who was placed in your home;
- Caring for your spouse, child, or parent with a serious health condition;
- A serious health condition that makes you unable to perform the functions of your job;
- Caring for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness; or
- A qualifying military exigency resulting from the fact that your spouse, child, or parent is a covered military member on active duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty) in support of a contingency operation.

For more detailed information about qualifying reasons for leave under the FMLA, visit <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/whd/fmla>.

If you qualify for a suspension, your TEACH Grant servicer must receive your suspension request before your TEACH Grants are converted to Direct Unsubsidized Loans. Refer to your Agreement or contact us (see "Who can I contact if I have questions?" on page 1) for more information about the conditions under which your TEACH Grants may be converted to loans.

Maximum suspension period

If you meet the requirements described in this section, you will receive a temporary suspension of the 8-year period for completing your TEACH Grant service obligation for a consecutive 12-month period covering the school year during which you are temporarily unable to teach. If you continue to qualify for a suspension at the end of one suspension period, you may reapply for another 12-month suspension. However, there is a maximum 3-year limit on the period of time for which you may receive a suspension of the 8-year service obligation period based on having a condition that is a qualifying reason for leave under the FMLA, in combination with any periods of suspension you may receive based on certain other conditions, as explained in your Agreement.

In the event of litigation, we may send records to the Department of Justice, a court, adjudicative body, counsel, party, or witness if the disclosure is relevant and necessary to the litigation. If this information, either alone or with other information, indicates a potential violation of law, we may send it to the appropriate authority for action. Disclosures may be made to our contractors for the purpose of performing any programmatic function that requires disclosure of records. Before making any such disclosure, we will require the contractor to maintain Privacy Act safeguards. Disclosures may also be made to qualified researchers under Privacy Act safeguards.

If your TEACH Grant has been converted to a Direct Unsubsidized Loan, the routine uses of this information also include, but are not limited to, its disclosure to federal, state, or local agencies, to private parties such as relatives, present and former employers, business and personal associates, to creditors, to financial and educational institutions, and to guaranty agencies to verify your identity, to determine your program eligibility and benefits, to permit making, servicing, assigning, collecting, adjusting or discharging your loan(s), to enforce the terms of the loan(s), to investigate possible fraud and to verify compliance with federal student financial aid program regulations, to locate you if you become delinquent in your loan payments or if you default, or to verify whether your debt qualifies for discharge or cancellation. To provide default rate calculations, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to federal, state or local agencies. To provide financial aid history information, disclosures may be made to educational institutions. To assist program administrators with tracking refunds and cancellations, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to federal or state agencies.

To provide a standardized method for educational institutions to efficiently submit student enrollment status, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies or to financial and educational institutions. To counsel you in repayment efforts, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to federal, state, or local agencies.
