Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This information is required to obtain benefits. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Section 101a of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 added Section 235 Homeownership for Lower Income Families to the National Housing Act. Under the Section 235 Program, the Secretary is authorized to make periodic assistance payments on behalf of homeowners. Both HUD and the mortgagee use this form. The form HUD-300 must be submitted with the form HUD-93102, Mortgagee's Certification and Application for Assistance or Interest Reduction Payments. This information collection supports the billing information provided on the HUD-93102 by reducing the assistance application information on the HUD-93102. The respondents are assured confidentiality as stated in the Privacy Act of 1974. HUD generally discloses this data only in response to a Freedom of Information request.
