

FY 2020 Survey of State Government Research and Development

The National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics within the National Science Foundation (NSF) and the U.S. Census Bureau are conducting the FY 2020 Survey of State Government Research and Development to determine the extent of R&D expenditures by departments and agencies during FY 2020.

Your State Coordinator has identified your agency [Name of agency] as potentially having conducted and/or funded R&D activities in FY 2020. Please note, if your agency does not perform or fund any R&D and you received a survey request, we still need to know that you do not have any R&D; please call or email us to let us know.

Your State Coordinator is:

- State Coordinator's Name
- Job Title
- Email address

Please download the attached fillable PDF form, complete and email back to erd.sgrd@census.gov as soon as possible. The survey is due February 15, 2021. If you are unable to download attachments, please visit our website at <https://www.census.gov/programs-surveys/sgrd/information.html> where you can download the form. If you prefer a Microsoft Excel version of the form or to give your information over the phone to a Census analyst, please call 1-888-340-7525 between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, Monday through Friday.

Your response will be compiled by the Census Bureau and forwarded to the NSF, the federal agency charged with collecting and reporting national R&D statistics. These statistics are used to measure states' contributions to our nation's science and technology base, a building block of a strong U.S. economy, in the calculation of state and national Gross Domestic Product (GDP), and used by state and federal policy makers. Survey results can be found on NSF web page: <http://www.nsf.gov/statistics/srvystaterd/>.

Thank you,
