 The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), in coordination with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), is conducting a pilot test of the International Trade Data System (ITDS). Registrants that participate in the pilot test will be permitted to import against the DEA-236 forms once the transaction identification number has been issued by DEA. Registrants that do not participate in the pilot test must adhere to the 15-day waiting period even if a transaction identification number has been issued. DEA encourages all registrants to participate in the pilot test by contacting DEA at ITDSPilot@usdoj.gov
