§8110. Augmented compensation for dependents

- (a) For the purpose of this section, "dependent" means--
- (1) a wife, if--
- (A) she is a member of the same household as the employee;
- (B) she is receiving regular contributions from the employee for her support; or
- (C) the employee has been ordered by a court to contribute to her support;
- (2) a husband, if--
- (A) he is a member of the same household as the employee; or
- (B) he is receiving regular contributions from the employee for his support; or
- (C) the employee has been ordered by a court to contribute to his support;
- (3) an unmarried child, while living with the employee or receiving regular contributions from the employee toward his support, and who is--
- (A) under 18 years of age; or
- (B) over 18 years of age and incapable of self-support because of physical or mental disability; and
- (4) a parent, while wholly dependent on and supported by the employee.

Notwithstanding paragraph (3) of this subsection, compensation payable for a child that would otherwise end because the child has reached 18 years of age shall continue if he is a student as defined by section 8101 of this title at the time he reaches 18 years of age for so long as he continues to be such a student or until he marries.

- (b) A disabled employee with one or more dependents is entitled to have his basic compensation for disability augmented--
- (1) at the rate of 8 1/3 percent of his monthly pay if that compensation is payable under section 8105 or 8107(a) of this title; and
- (2) at the rate of 8 1/3 percent of the difference between his monthly pay and his monthly wage-earning capacity if that compensation is payable under section 8106(a) of this title.
