<<Date>>
FROM THE DIRECTOR
U.S. CENSUS BUREAU

Dear PSAP Tribal Participant:

The U.S. Census Bureau (Census Bureau) recently invited your tribal government to participate in the 2020 Census Participant Statistical Areas Program (PSAP). You may now start to review and update Alaska Native village statistical areas (ANVSAs). Please take the action steps below to participate.

Action Steps:

1. Review the program materials in your package:
   - PSAP Quick Reference Guide(s).
   - 2020 Census Participant Statistical Areas Program (PSAP) Paper Tribal Respondent Guide – This guide includes instructions on how to review and update your tribal statistical area(s).
   - Paper maps for your tribe.

2. Check the "No Changes" box or check the "I plan to submit changes" box on the enclosed postage-paid postcard and return it to the Census Bureau within two weeks of receipt.

   Note: If you check the "No Changes" box, we are able to confirm that your tribe has received and reviewed statistical areas for the 2020 Census PSAP. If you do not return the postage-paid postcard to the Census Bureau, we will contact your tribe to confirm whether you have any statistical updates to report.

3. Make tribal statistical area boundary updates on the paper maps.

4. Mail the updated paper maps back to the Census Bureau in the same map tube or envelope in which you received your original materials.

   Note: Please make sure to stick the enclosed postage-paid label over the top of the original label before you send the map tube back to the Census Bureau.

You have 120 calendar days from the receipt of this letter to complete and submit your tribal statistical area updates. The information you submit will ensure the accuracy and completeness of tribal statistical area delineations for the 2020 Census. The Census Bureau will review your statistical area updates and ensure all updates meet the established criteria for the 2020 Census PSAP.

Thank you for your participation in the 2020 Census PSAP.
