

OMB Control No: 0607-1003

FROM THE ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR FOR DECENNIAL CENSUS PROGRAMS

Dear State Tribal Liaison:

The U.S. Census Bureau (Census Bureau) invites your state to participate in the 2020 Census Participant Statistical Areas Program (PSAP). Do not miss your once-per-decade opportunity to review and update state reservations, state designated tribal statistical areas (SDTSAs), and census designated places (CDPs) as part of the 2020 Census PSAP.

We strongly encourage your participation in the 2020 Census PSAP for the following reasons:

- The federal government allocates over $675 billion in federal funds annually for infrastructure, programs, and services based on Census Bureau data.
- Participation ensures that state recognized tribes in your state will gain valuable information that will aid in making decisions about education, health services, and housing.
- The 2020 Census PSAP is your only opportunity to review and update state reservations, SDTSAs, and CDPs for your state prior to the 2020 Census.

Action Steps:

1. Review the enclosed 2020 Census Participant Statistical Areas Program (PSAP) Information Guide to answer questions about PSAP and help your government prepare for participation.
2. Sign-up for the 2020 Census PSAP by filling out the enclosed State Tribal Liaison Contact Update Form and State Recognized Tribes Update Form. Please return the completed forms in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope or scan and e-mail the forms to geo.psap@census.gov, within two weeks of receipt.

You can find statistical data for state recognized tribal areas in the Census Bureau's My Tribal Area application at <https://www.census.gov/tribal/>.

As the state tribal liaison, we ask that you reach out to the state recognized American Indian tribes to inform them of this opportunity to document and legally define state reservation boundaries, as well as the SDTSAs, and CDPs for their tribes, reservations, or trust lands.

<State> has granted legal status to the state recognized tribes listed below. Please review the list below for accuracy and return any modifications on the 2020 Census State Recognized Tribes Update Form. If there are no modifications, please return the form stating NO CHANGE in boxes 1 and 2.

Note: Please only provide updates for state recognized tribes in your state. The Census Bureau will contact all federally recognized American Indian tribes directly to request their participation in PSAP.
