

Attachment B2

60-day FRN public comment

I think that you should run this past President Trump. Given his scientific background, odds are that he has a strong opinion on this particular subject.

"My uncle was a great professor at MIT for many years. Dr. John Trump. And I didn't talk to him about this particular subject, but I have a natural instinct for science." - President Trump