

Instructions for Application for Advance Permission to Enter as a Nonimmigrant

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-192
OMB No. 1615-0017
Expires 04/30/2021

What Is the Purpose of Form I-192?

Use this application if you are inadmissible and are seeking advance permission to temporarily enter the United States as a nonimmigrant.

You can find grounds of inadmissibility in the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 212(a). You can find the statutory and regulatory basis for this application in INA section 212(d)(3)(A)(ii), 8 CFR section 212.4, INA section 212(d)(13) and (14), 8 CFR 212.16 and 17, and 8 CFR 214.11 and 214.14 for T nonimmigrant status applicants and U nonimmigrant status petitioners.

Who Should File Form I-192?

File Form I-192 if you are an inadmissible foreign national in one of the following categories:

1. Inadmissible nonimmigrant already in possession of appropriate documents;
2. Applicant for principal or derivative T nonimmigrant status (Form I-914 or I-914, Supplement A); or
3. Petitioner for principal or derivative U nonimmigrant status (Form I-918 or I-918, Supplement A).

NOTE: If you are planning to seek admission under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) under INA section 217, you should NOT file this application. Aliens from VWP countries who are inadmissible are not eligible for VWP admission. You must apply instead for a nonimmigrant visa at a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate for authorization to travel. You should contact the appropriate U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate if you have any questions regarding your eligibility for admission under the VWP or regarding a waiver of inadmissibility in connection with an application for nonimmigrant visa.

NOTE: If you need a visa to come to the United States as a nonimmigrant (other than as a T or U nonimmigrant) do not file this application. You should contact the appropriate U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate if you have any questions regarding your eligibility for waiver of inadmissibility in connection with an application for a nonimmigrant visa.

NOTE: If you are seeking T nonimmigrant status or U nonimmigrant status, and you are only inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(4) (public charge), you do NOT need to file this application because you are exempt from this ground of inadmissibility.

General Instructions

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) provides forms free of charge through the USCIS website. In order to view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. If you do not have Internet access, you may call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 and ask that we mail a form to you. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Signature. Each application must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this application, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original, handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten, ink signature.

Filing Fee. Each application must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee. (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Biometric Services Appointment

1. For Applicants Filing Form I-192 with USCIS. Every individual who is an applicant, petitioner, derivative, beneficiary, or sponsor of an immigration benefit request or other request submitted to USCIS is required to submit biometrics unless USCIS waives or exempts the requirement. USCIS currently exempts all Form I-192 applicants from this requirement unless USCIS or CBP notifies the applicant that biometrics are required. You will be notified of the time and place of your appointment if you must appear and you will be provided requirements for rescheduling if necessary. If you fail to provide any biometrics as required, USCIS may deny your application, petition, or request.

DHS may store the biometrics submitted by an individual and use or reuse biometrics to conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), verify identity, produce documents, determine eligibility for immigration and naturalization benefits, or to perform any other functions necessary for administering and enforcing immigration and naturalization laws, and any other law within DHS authority.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

- A. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
- B. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
- C. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

2. For Applicants Filing Form I-192 with CBP. Contact CBP to determine whether you have to attend a biometric services appointment for the purpose of filing your Form I-192.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS or CBP may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application or petition. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS, your original documents may be immediately destroyed after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must include the translator's signature. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) recommends the certification contain the translator's printed name, the signature date, and the translator's contact information.

If you fail to submit required evidence, USCIS or CBP may reject or deny your application for failure to submit requested evidence or supporting documents in accordance with 8 CFR 103.2(b)(1) and these Instructions.

1. General Information Required to Complete Form I-192

A. Inadmissible on Foreign Policy or National Security Grounds under INA section 212(a)(3)

If you are inadmissible under any provision of INA section 212(a)(3)(A)(i)(II), (B), (E)(iii), or (F), submit a written statement with your application, signed under penalty of perjury under U.S. law. The written statement should explain in detail why you are inadmissible and why you believe you should be admitted.

NOTE: Do not file this application if you are seeking advance permission under INA section 212(d)(3)(A), but are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(3)(A)(i)(I), INA section 212(a)(3)(A)(ii), INA section 212(a)(3)(A)(iii), INA section 212(a)(3)(C), INA section 212(a)(3)(E)(i), or INA section 212(a)(3)(E)(ii). INA section 212(d)(3)(A) does not permit the nonimmigrant admission of a foreign national inadmissible on one of these grounds.

NOTE: Do not file this application if you are an applicant for T nonimmigrant status seeking a waiver under INA section 212(d)(13) and you are inadmissible under INA sections 212(a)(3), 212(a)(10)(C), or 212(a)(10)(E). INA section 212(d)(13)(B)(ii) does not permit the waiver of these grounds of inadmissibility for T nonimmigrants.

NOTE: Do not file this application if you are seeking U nonimmigrant status and you are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(3)(E). INA section 212(d)(14) does not permit the waiver of this ground of inadmissibility.

NOTE: Do not file this application if you are inadmissible only under INA section 212(a)(3)(D) for being a member of a Communist or other totalitarian party, since this inadmissibility ground applies to immigrants, and not nonimmigrants.

NOTE: If you are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(9)(A) or 212(a)(9)(C)(i)(II), you may also need to file Form I-212, Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States After Deportation or Removal.

B. Inadmissible Because of Health-Related Grounds of Inadmissibility Under INA section 212(a)(1)

If you file this application because you are inadmissible because of health-related grounds of inadmissibility, you must describe the health-related grounds in detail.

If you are seeking admission to the United States for the treatment of a medical condition, you must attach a written statement establishing:

- (1) That satisfactory treatment cannot be obtained outside the United States;
- (2) That arrangements for treatment have been made, including where and from whom or what institution treatment will be received;
- (3) What financial arrangements for payment of expenses (incurred in connection with the treatment) have been made; and
- (4) That a bond will be available, if required by the Secretary of Homeland Security.

C. Inadmissible Because of Criminal Convictions and Related Grounds under INA section 212(a)(2)

If you are filing this application because you have been convicted of one or more crimes anywhere in the world, your application must include a statement, signed by you under penalty of perjury under U.S. law, specifying:

- (1) Name each of the crimes and criminal statutes for which you were convicted, and the country in which you were convicted;
- (2) Dates and places of the commission of the crimes;
- (3) Dates and places of conviction (including the name of the court); and
- (4) Sentences you received, or any other judgments from the court related to the crimes.

List each crime separately.

For each conviction, you must submit the official record of each conviction and all court dispositions, as well as any other documents relating to the commutation of sentence, parole, probation, or pardon. If an official record is not available then you may submit an official letter from the court of jurisdiction stating the reason why an official record is not available.

These records must be in English, or an English translation must be included. The translator must certify that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language to English and that the translation is accurate.

D. For All Other Grounds of Inadmissibility under INA section 212(a)

If you are inadmissible under any ground not listed above, you must provide a statement signed by you under penalty of perjury that specifies the applicable ground of inadmissibility, the factual basis for your inadmissibility, and reasons for claiming that you should be granted advance permission to enter the United States.

2. Required Additional Information When Filing Form I-192 With CBP

If you file this application with CBP, you must submit the following additional documentation.

- A. Proof of citizenship and identity, such as a passport, citizenship card with photograph, naturalization certificate, or birth certificate. Note that a driver's license is not considered proof of citizenship but may accompany a copy of another document. Copies of these documents are acceptable.
- B. If you have ever used a name other than your full legal name as provided on this application, you must list it in Part 2., Item Numbers 2.a. - 3.c. on this application. Include any names from previous marriages. Evidence of any legal name changes, such as marriage certificates, or divorce decrees must be included. Copies are acceptable.
- C. Each application must contain your official police record or evidence that no record exists from your country of residence or nationality. This record is valid for 15 months from the date of issuance for submission with your Form I-192.
- D. NOTE to Canadian Applicants: You can obtain the information noted above from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) by submitting your fingerprints on Form C-216C. The returned Civil Product and any accompanying records must be dated and endorsed by the RCMP within 15 months of submission with your Form I-192. For instructions, addresses, and payment information, visit the RCMP website at: www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/.

E. If you retained an attorney to file the application, counsel may be obliged to complete Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative or Form F281, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney In Matters Outside the Geographical Confines of the United States.

F. Recommended Supporting Documentation:

- (1) Evidence and/or a written account demonstrating rehabilitation and character reformation related to your being inadmissible. The focus of such evidence should include, but is not limited to, targeted counseling, rehabilitation programs attended/completed, achievements in community service, or other relevant, credible information showing rehabilitation and character reformation; and
- (2) A copy of any previously issued Form I-192 decisions (favorable or otherwise).

What Is the Filing Fee?

The filing fee for Form I-192 depends on the agency that makes the decision on your application.

1. If filing with USCIS, the filing fee for Form I-192 is $930. If you receive a notice to appear for a biometric services appointment, you may also be required to pay the $85 biometric services fee.
2. If filing with CBP, the filing fee for Form I-192 is $585.

A fee waiver request will be considered in accordance with 8 CFR 103.7(c) for the following individuals:

1. An applicant for T nonimmigrant status; and
2. A petitioner for U nonimmigrant status.

NOTE: The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amount.

If you are applying to USCIS, use the following guidelines when you prepare your check or money order for the Form I-192 filing fee:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the check or money order payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.
3. NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”
4. If you live outside the United States, contact the nearest U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate for instructions on the method of payment.

Notice to Those Paying by Check. If you send USCIS a check, we will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, we will re-submit the payment to the financial institution one time. If the check is returned as unpayable a second time, we will reject your application and charge you a returned check fee.

If you are applying to CBP, use the following guidelines when you prepare your check or money order for the Form I-192 filing fee:

1. The check or money order must be made payable to Customs and Border Protection. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency. Certain CBP-designated Ports-of-Entry and certain CBP-designated preclearance offices may accept payment in the form of cash or credit cards.

We recommend that you contact the CBP preclearance office or CBP Port-of-Entry where you intend to be processed for payment instructions. Please visit the CBP website at www.cbp.gov (go to the search box and type “Form I-192,” “I-192,” “192,” or “waiver”).

2. Special Instructions for Citizens of Palau, the Federated States of Micronesia, or the Marshall Islands. You may contact the nearest U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate to receive payment instructions. ### How Long Is an Approved Form I-192 Valid?

If your application for advance permission to enter as a nonimmigrant is granted, the permission will be valid for the duration stated on the approval (8 CFR 212.4(c)(3)(iii)), subject to the conditions imposed on your admission. Advance permission to enter as a nonimmigrant is granted at the discretion of DHS, and may be revoked at any time. See 8 CFR 212.4(c)(1)(viii).

If you leave the United States and if the approval is no longer valid, you will need to file a new application for any future entries. A prior approval of Form I-192 cannot be revalidated. See 8 CFR 212.4(c)(3)(vi).
