The Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings			You should use Form N-336, Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings under Section 336, to request a hearing before an immigration officer on the denial of your Form N-400, Application for Naturalization. You should file your request for a hearing (N-336) within 30 calendar days of receiving the denial of your Application for Naturalization. Generally, USCIS will reject a request that is not timely filed. USCIS will not refund the filing fee if Form N-336 is rejected because it was not timely filed. However, if you do not timely file your request for a hearing, but it meets the requirements for a motion to reopen or motion to reconsider, USCIS will reopen or reconsider your case and send you a decision.		Learn more about a hearing requesting a hearing
	Before you start your request	Eligibility	You are eligible to submit a request if you believe USCIS incorrectly denied your Application for Naturalization (N-400) and you want to request a hearing with an immigration officer. Members of the U.S. Armed Forces currently cannot file this request online. If you are a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, you will need to submit the paper version of this form.
		Fee	Fee: $700 The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this request. If you receive a notice to appear for a biometric services appointment, you may also be required to pay the $85 biometric services fee. If you are applying for a fee waiver, you cannot submit your request online and will need to file a paper form instead. Learn more about filing a fee waiver. Learn more about filing a fee waiver.	Learn more about a fee waiver filing a fee waiver
		Submitting online	Submitting your form online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.
		Documents you may need	Before starting the Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (N-336), you may want to gather any documents that support your request. You may submit any additional documents or briefs to support your request for a hearing when you file your request online or you may bring them with you to your hearing.
After you submit your request	Track your case online		After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check on your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.
	Respond to requests for evidence		If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.
Biometrics appointment
Every individual who is an applicant, petitioner, derivative, beneficiary or sponsor of an Immigration benefit request or other request submitted to USCIS is required to submit biometrics unless USCIS waives or exempts the requirement. USCIS currently exempts all Form N-336 requestors from this requirement, unless USCIS notifies the requestor that biometrics are required. You will be notified of the time and place of your appointment if you must appear and you will be provided requirements for rescheduling if necessary. If you fail to submit any biometrics as required, USCIS may deny your application, petition, or request. DHS may store the biometrics submitted by an individual and use or reuse biometrics to conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), verify identity, produce documents, determine eligibility for immigration and naturalization benefits, or to perform any other functions necessary for administering and enforcing immigration and naturalization laws, and any other law within DHS authority.
Completing your form online	Complete the Getting Started section first		You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.
	Provide as many responses as you can		You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form.
	We will automatically save your responses		We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on your form.
	How to continue filling out your form		After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.

h5. Filing as a member of the U.S. armed forces

You cannot submit this request online if you filed your naturalization application as a member of the U.S. armed forces. To request a hearing, you need to file the paper version of the Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (N-336). [link to: <https://www.uscis.gov/n-336>] You do not need to pay the filing fee.

If you did not file your naturalization application as a member of the U.S. armed forces, you can complete your request and submit it online.
