

Instructions for Application for Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-601A
OMB No. 1615-0123
Expires 02/28/2021

What Is the Purpose of Form I-601A?

Certain immigrant visa applicants who are relatives of U.S. citizens or Lawful Permanent Residents (LPRs) may use this application to request a provisional waiver of the unlawful presence grounds of inadmissibility under Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 212(a)(9)(B), before they depart the United States to appear at a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate for an immigrant visa interview.

Who May File Form I-601A?

You may file this application to seek a provisional unlawful presence waiver if you:

1. Are physically present in the United States;
2. Are at least 17 years of age at the time of filing;
3. Have an immigrant visa case pending with Department of State (DOS) because you:
 - A. Are the principal beneficiary of an approved Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, an approved Form I-140, Petition for Alien Worker, or an approved Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, and have paid the immigrant visa processing fee to DOS, and you are currently in the process of obtaining your immigrant visa;
 - B. Have been selected by DOS to participate in the Diversity Visa (DV) Program (that is, you are a DV Program selectee) and are currently in the process of obtaining your immigrant visa; or
 - C. Are the spouse or child of a principal beneficiary of an approved immigrant visa petition and have paid the immigrant visa processing fee to DOS, or you are the spouse or child of a DV Program selectee (that is, you are a DV Program derivative), and you are currently in the process of obtaining your immigrant visa; and

NOTE: The Child Status Protection Act (CSPA) permits certain beneficiaries of immigrant visa petitions to retain classification as a child even if they have reached 21 years of age. Visit the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) website at www.uscis.gov/green-card/green-card-processes-and-procedures/child-status-protection-act/child-status-protection-act-cspa for more information.

NOTE TO DV PROGRAM SELECTEES AND DERIVATIVES: Because a DV Program selectee or derivative can only be issued a diversity immigrant visa during the fiscal year for which the DV Program selectee registered, you can only obtain a provisional unlawful presence waiver while you are in the process of obtaining the immigrant visa with DOS. You are in the process of obtaining an immigrant visa if the DOS Kentucky Consular Center (KCC) has assigned you a DV case number, and you are awaiting an immigrant visa interview while in the United States.

4. Believe you are or will be inadmissible only for a period of unlawful presence in the United States that was:
 - A. More than 180 days, but less than 1 year, during a single stay (INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(I)); or
 - B. One year or more during a single stay (INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II)).

Who is NOT Eligible to Receive a Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver?

You are not eligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver and USCIS will deny your application if any of the following apply to you:

1. You do not meet all of the requirements listed in the Who May File Form I-601A section of these Instructions;
2. You have Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, pending with USCIS;
3. You are in removal proceedings, unless your removal proceedings are administratively closed and have not been placed back on the Department of Justice (DOJ), Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) calendar to continue your removal proceedings at the time you file your Form I-601A;

NOTE: Even if your removal proceedings are administratively closed, you are still “in removal proceedings” until EOIR terminates or dismisses your case. You are, however, eligible to apply for a provisional unlawful presence waiver if EOIR has not placed your removal proceedings back on its calendar to continue your removal proceedings.

4. You are subject to an administratively final order of removal, exclusion, or deportation that has been entered or issued against you (including an in absentia order under INA section 240(b)(5)) unless, you applied for, and USCIS has already granted, an application for permission to reapply for admission under section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) of the Act and 8 CFR 212;

NOTE: Permission to reapply for admission is also called “consent to reapply.” The application is filed on Form I-212, Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States After Deportation or Removal. For more information on Form I-212, please visit USCIS’ website at www.uscis.gov/I-212.

5. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has entered a final decision reinstating a prior deportation, exclusion, or removal order against you under INA 241(a)(5) by serving you with a Form I-871, Notice of Intent/Decision to Reinstate Prior Order, before you filed the provisional unlawful presence waiver application or while the provisional unlawful presence waiver application is pending;

NOTE: You are not yet ineligible for the provisional unlawful presence waiver if DHS has only served you with a notice that DHS intends to reinstate a prior deportation, exclusion, or removal order, but only if DHS enters a final order reinstating the prior deportation, exclusion, or removal order. You must still let USCIS know, if DHS has served you with the notice that DHS intends to reinstate the order, since that fact may be material to the adjudication of your application.

6. You are currently subject to an unexpired grant of voluntary departure from the immigration judge or the BIA; or
7. You fail to establish that your U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent would experience extreme hardship if you are refused admission to the United States or that USCIS should approve your application as a matter of discretion. You must establish that refusal to admit you would result in extreme hardship to your U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent. You must also establish that your case warrants a favorable exercise of discretion by showing that favorable factors in your case should be given more weight than the unfavorable factors.

Can I File Other Forms with Form I-601A?

Form I-601A is a standalone application. You cannot file Form I-601A with any other applications, petitions, or requests for immigration benefits. You also should not file any other applications, petitions, or requests for immigration benefits with Form I-601A or request that these applications, petitions, or requests for immigration benefits be considered with Form I-601A.

If you submit your Form I-601A with any of the following forms, your application will be REJECTED and returned to you with the filing fee and biometric services fee:

1. Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485);
2. Petition for Alien Relative (Form I-130);

3. Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission Into the United States After Deportation or Removal (Form I-212);
4. Application for Travel Document (Form I-131); or
5. Application for Employment Authorization (Form I-765).

NOTE: You may file Form G-1145, E-Notification of Application/Petition Acceptance, with Form I-601A to request that USCIS electronically notify you when USCIS accepts your Form I-601A application.

NOTE: Applicants for provisional unlawful presence waivers cannot seek adjustment of status in the United States based on Form I-601A. A provisional unlawful presence waiver is only effective if the applicant departs the United States, attends the immigrant visa interview scheduled by DOS at a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate abroad, and the consular officer finds that the applicant is eligible for the immigrant visa. For more information about the immigrant visa process, visit the DOS website at www.state.gov.

What Should I Do After I File Form I-601A?

After you file your Form I-601A, it is important that you provide all required paperwork for your immigrant visa to the Department of State, National Visa Center (NVC). The NVC cannot schedule your immigrant visa interview until it receives all of your immigrant visa paperwork. Failure to submit the required paperwork will delay your case.

What Should I Do Once USCIS Approves My Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver?

1. If you are in removal proceedings, resolve your removal proceedings. If you are in removal proceedings and USCIS approves your Form I-601A, it is important that you resolve your removal proceedings before you leave the United States. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are resolved may delay processing of your immigrant visa based on another ground of inadmissibility. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are resolved may also result in the automatic revocation of your approved provisional unlawful presence waiver. Visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/provisionalwaiver for information about how to resolve your removal proceedings before you depart the United States.
2. Depart the United States to attend your immigrant visa interview. You must depart the United States to attend your immigrant visa interview for the provisional unlawful presence waiver to become fully effective. If you fail to do this, your provisional unlawful presence waiver will not take effect and the approval may no longer be valid.

How Long Is My Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver Valid and When Can USCIS Revoke It?

1. Validity of an approved waiver. An approved provisional unlawful presence waiver takes effect once you depart the United States, you appear for your immigrant visa interview, and the DOS consular officer determines you are otherwise admissible to the United States and eligible for an immigrant visa. Once your waiver takes effect, it is valid indefinitely for the period of unlawful presence that was waived.
2. Revocation of an approved waiver. An approved provisional unlawful presence waiver is automatically revoked and no longer valid if:
 - A. You enter or attempt to reenter the United States without inspection and admission or parole:
 - (1) While your application for a provisional unlawful presence waiver is pending with USCIS;
 - (2) After your provisional unlawful presence waiver is approved; or
 - (3) Before your immigrant visa is issued;

- B. The DOS consular officer determines at the immigrant visa interview that you are ineligible to receive the immigrant visa because you are inadmissible on grounds other than the 3-year or 10-year unlawful presence bars;
- C. The immigrant visa petition that was the basis for the provisional unlawful presence waiver is at any time revoked, withdrawn, or rendered invalid, but not otherwise reinstated for humanitarian reasons or converted to a widow or widower petition (Form I-360);
- D. DOS terminates your immigrant visa registration in accordance with INA section 203(g), and it has not been reinstated; or
- E. The DOS consular officer determines that you are ineligible for the immigrant visa.

What Happens If My Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver is Denied or Revoked or If I Withdraw My Pending Application?

If your provisional unlawful presence waiver is denied or is approved, but subsequently revoked, or you withdraw your pending application:

1. You may depart the United States to attend your immigrant visa interview and apply for a waiver abroad. At your immigrant visa interview at the U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate abroad, DOS will make an admissibility determination. If DOS determines you are inadmissible, based on unlawful presence or other grounds, you may file Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility, with USCIS from abroad, if a waiver is available to you.
2. You may file a new Form I-601A along with the required filing fee and biometric services fee. You must still meet all the eligibility requirements for the provisional unlawful presence waiver at the time of filing, including requirements to be physically present in the United States and to appear for your biometric services appointment at a USCIS Application Support Center (ASC).
3. USCIS may initiate removal proceedings. Denial of your provisional unlawful presence application does not automatically trigger initiation of removal proceedings. USCIS will follow its current guidelines for initiation of removal proceedings. For more information on USCIS guidance for referral of cases and issuance of Notices to Appear (NTAs) in cases involving inadmissible and removable aliens, visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/provisionalwaiver.

How Does a Pending or Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver Affect My Immigration Status?

The filing or approval of an application for a provisional unlawful presence waiver does not affect your current immigration status in the United States. A pending or approved provisional unlawful presence waiver:

1. Does NOT provide interim benefits. Filing this application does not give you interim benefits such as employment authorization or eligibility to apply for advance parole to return to the United States. A pending or approved waiver also does not give you any interim benefits while your immigrant visa application is pending with DOS;
2. Does NOT provide lawful status. If you are not otherwise maintaining lawful status in the United States, the filing or approval of this waiver application alone does not give you lawful immigration status in the United States;
3. Does NOT stop the accrual of unlawful presence or provide protection from removal. A pending or approved waiver will not prevent the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) from initiating removal proceedings against you or actually removing you from the United States. A pending or approved waiver also does not protect you from accruing additional unlawful presence while still in the United States;

4. Does NOT remove the requirement to depart the United States and seek an immigrant visa. If your provisional unlawful presence waiver is approved, you must still depart the United States to process your immigrant visa at a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate abroad. The approval of a provisional unlawful presence waiver does not make you eligible for adjustment of status in the United States. For more information on adjustment of status, visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/greencard;
5. Does NOT guarantee immigrant visa issuance. A DOS consular officer will determine if you are eligible for an immigrant visa. There are many reasons why individuals are ineligible for an immigrant visa, and this provisional unlawful presence waiver only provisionally covers one ground of inadmissibility resulting from unlawful presence in the United States. For more information about immigrant visa requirements, consult the DOS website at <http://nvc.state.gov>; and
6. Does NOT guarantee admission to the United States. Having an approved waiver or immigrant visa does not guarantee your admission to the United States. A U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer will make a determination when you apply for admission at a U.S. Port-of-Entry.

What Happens If I Depart the United States While My Form I-601A Is Pending or If I Enter or Attempt to Reenter Without Inspection and Admission or Parole?

All applicants for a provisional unlawful presence waiver must be in the United States at the time of filing Form I-601A and appear for biometrics capture at a USCIS ASC.

USCIS may consider your case abandoned and deny it pursuant to 8 CFR 103.2(b)(13) if you do not appear for biometrics capture, if you do not respond to a request for evidence (RFE), or if you do not appear for an interview when requested by USCIS.

If you depart the United States, and at any time before or after filing Form I-601A, enter or attempt to reenter the United States without inspection and admission or parole, you may be placed in removal proceedings, may be subject to additional grounds of inadmissibility that would render you ineligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver, and any approval of Form I-601A would be automatically revoked.

General Instructions

USCIS provides forms free of charge through the USCIS website. In order to view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Signature. Each application must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this application, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

Filing Fee. Each application must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee and biometric services fee (if applicable). (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed in the Specific Instructions and/or What Evidence Must I Submit With Form I-601A sections of these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. Every individual who is an applicant, petitioner, derivative, beneficiary, or sponsor of an immigration benefit request or other request submitted to USCIS is required to submit biometrics unless USCIS waives or exempts the requirement. You will be notified of the time and place of your appointment if you must appear and you will be provided requirements for rescheduling if necessary. If you fail to submit any biometrics as required, USCIS may deny your application, petition, or request.

DHS may store the biometrics submitted by an individual and use or reuse biometrics to conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), verify identity, produce documents, determine eligibility for immigration and naturalization benefits, or to perform any other functions necessary for administering and enforcing immigration and naturalization laws, and any other law within DHS authority.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

Copies. You may submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application, petition, or request. If you submit original documents when not required, the documents may remain a part of the record, and USCIS will not automatically return them to you.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification should also include the date, the translator's signature and printed name, and may contain the translator's contact information.

Specific Instructions

Approved Immigrant Visa Case or DV Program Selectee or Derivative

To apply for a provisional unlawful presence waiver, you must have an immigrant visa case pending with DOS based on:

1. An approved immigrant visa petition and payment of the immigrant visa processing fee to DOS; or
2. Selection by DOS to participate in the DV Program for the fiscal year for which you registered.

Immigrant Visa Processing

DOS processes immigrant visas for foreign nationals who wish to immigrate permanently to the United States from abroad, including foreign nationals who are ineligible to adjust their status to that of an LPR in the United States.

Based on a USCIS-Approved Immigrant Visa Petition

USCIS sends the approved immigrant visa petition to the DOS NVC for consular processing of the immigrant visa if Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, or Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, indicates that the beneficiary will seek an immigrant visa through the consular process abroad or if the beneficiary is not eligible to adjust status in the United States. Once the NVC receives this approved immigrant visa petition, the NVC sends the beneficiary instructions on how to initiate the immigrant visa process and pay the immigrant visa processing fee.

You must have already paid the DOS immigrant visa processing fee and must provide USCIS with a copy of your DOS-issued immigrant visa processing fee receipt or other evidence of fee payment when you submit your provisional unlawful presence waiver application. You must submit the DOS immigrant visa processing fee receipt or other evidence of fee payment for the NVC case associated with the approved immigrant visa petition. Contact the NVC if you need another copy of your DOS-issued immigrant visa processing fee receipt.

Based on the Diversity Visa Program

DOS administers the DV Program. To participate in the program, a foreign national must register with DOS during the designated registration period. If DOS selects the foreign national from the pool of registrants to continue the DV process, DOS instructs the DV Program selectee and any derivatives on how to obtain an immigrant visa.

If you are a DV Program selectee or derivative, you can submit a provisional unlawful presence waiver request to USCIS as soon as you are selected. You must submit a print out from the DV Entrant Status Check page of the DOS Electronic Diversity Visa system website at www.dvlottery.state.gov/, confirming that you are a DV Program selectee or derivative.

NOTE: DV Program selectees and derivatives DO NOT need to show that they have already paid the DOS immigrant visa processing fee and they DO NOT have to submit a copy of the DOS-issued immigrant visa processing fee receipt.

Extreme Hardship to a Qualifying Relative

You must show that you have a U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent (qualifying relative) who would experience extreme hardship if you are refused admission to the United States. The qualifying relative does not need to be the relative who filed the immigrant visa petition, but he or she must be your U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent. For information about how you can show extreme hardship to your qualifying relative, see Extreme Hardship in the What Evidence Must I Submit With Form I-601A section of these Instructions.

NOTE to parents of a U.S. citizen or LPR child: A U.S. citizen or LPR child is not a qualifying relative for the purpose of showing extreme hardship in this application. USCIS will not consider extreme hardship experienced by your U.S. citizen or LPR children except to the extent that it affects the extreme hardship your U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent would experience.

NOTE to surviving relatives: If your U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent filed your immigrant visa petition, but died after filing the immigrant visa petition on your behalf, USCIS will consider the U.S. citizen or LPR spouse's or parent's death the functional equivalent of extreme hardship to the U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent, if you resided in the United States at the time of the death and you continue to reside in the United States.

You must still complete Part 3. Information About Your Immigrant Visa Case and Part 4. Information About Your Qualifying Relative with information about the Form I-130 petitioner. In Part 5. Statement From Applicant, you must explain why you believe USCIS should approve your application for a provisional unlawful presence waiver as a matter of discretion. You must also provide a copy of the U.S. citizen or LPR spouse's or parent's death certificate with your application.

This application is divided into nine parts. See below for greater detail.

If you need extra space to complete this section, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information.

Item Numbers 27. - 45. Your Immigration or Criminal History. Provide information about any and all immigration or criminal history.

1. Immigration Proceedings (Item Numbers 27. - 30.)

Item Number 27. You Are In Removal Proceedings But There Is No Final Order Yet. Indicate whether you are currently in removal, exclusion, or deportation proceedings because the immigration judge, the Board of Immigration Appeals, or a Federal court has not issued an order in your case yet. You are generally not eligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver unless your case is administratively closed and has not been put back on the court’s docket at the time you file your Form I-601A.

If you answer “Yes” to Item Number 27., you should proceed to Item Numbers 28.a - 28.b. Based on the scenario that applies to you in Item Numbers 28.a. - 28.b., you may be eligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver.

If your removal proceedings were terminated, you must submit a copy of all documents relating to the removal, deportation, or exclusion proceedings, including the order terminating the removal proceedings. If removal proceedings were terminated, you are not in removal proceedings.

Item Numbers 28.a. - 28.b. Removal Proceedings Administratively Closed or Removal Proceedings Put Back on EOIR’s Calendar to Continue The Case. Indicate which statement applies to you if you are currently in removal, deportation, or exclusion proceedings. Provide the evidence requested in the scenario that applies to you.

If your case is administratively closed and has not been put back on EOIR’s calendar to continue your case, you may be eligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver. If your case was administratively closed but has been put back on EOIR’s calendar to continue your case, you are ineligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver.

Item Numbers 29.a. - 29.b. Being Subject to Final Order of Removal, Exclusion, or Deportation. Indicate whether you are currently subject to a final order of removal, exclusion, or deportation.

NOTE: If you answer “Yes” to Item Number 29.a., you are ineligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver unless you applied for and USCIS has already approved an application for permission to reapply for admission under INA section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) and 8 CFR 212.2 on Form I-212, Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal. If you have already applied for, and USCIS has already granted, you permission to reapply for admission, provide the relevant information about the approved Form I-212 in Item Number 29.b. You may also provide a copy of the approval notice that USCIS sent to you when it approved your Form I-212.

Item Number 30.a. Reinstated Removal. Indicate in Item Number 30.a. whether DHS has served you with a Form I-871, Notice of Intent/Decision to Reinstate Prior Order, indicating that DHS intends to reinstate a prior deportation, exclusion, or removal order against you under INA section 241(a)(5).

Item Number 30.b. If you answered “Yes” to Item Number 30.a., indicate whether DHS has entered a final order reinstating a prior deportation, exclusion, or removal proceeding.

Item Number 31. Being Subject To An Unexpired Grant Of Voluntary Departure. Indicate whether you are currently subject to an unexpired grant of voluntary departure that was granted to you by an immigration judge or the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) during your removal proceedings.

If you are currently subject to an unexpired grant of voluntary departure from the immigration judge or the BIA, you are not eligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver. If you were granted voluntary departure in the past, but then you withdrew your voluntary departure request or otherwise terminated voluntary departure you should not select “Yes” to Item Number 31. In this case, you may be in removal proceedings or you may be the subject of a final order of removal, deportation or exclusion. You should select the statements that apply to you in Item Numbers 27. - 28.b. or Item Number 29.a.

If you withdrew your request for voluntary departure or otherwise terminated the voluntary departure, please provide a copy of all the relevant court documents.

If you did not depart during the voluntary departure period, you now have an outstanding final order of removal, deportation, or exclusion. You should not select “Yes” to Item Number 31., but “Yes” to Item Number 29.a.

2. Criminal History (Item Numbers 32. - 45.)

- A. If you answer “Yes” to any question in Item Numbers 32. - 38., provide the location, date, and a brief description of the event in Part 9. Additional Information. If you answer “Yes” to any question in Item Numbers 39.a. - 45., provide a complete explanation in Part 9. Additional Information. The provisional unlawful presence waiver only addresses the inadmissibility grounds associated with unlawful presence under INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(i). USCIS may deny your application as a matter of discretion due to unfavorable factors related to your criminal and/or immigration history unless you are able to establish that you warrant a favorable exercise of discretion.
- B. If you were arrested or detained, but not charged with any crime or offense, you must provide information about the event regardless of the country where the event occurred.
- C. If you were charged with a crime, you must provide certified court dispositions showing the court proceedings’ outcome. You must also provide copies of arrest reports, statements of charges, indictment information, or any other charging document issued against you. You MUST provide this information even if:
- (1) Your records were expunged;
 - (2) You were placed in an alternative sentencing or rehabilitation program (for example, diversion, deferred prosecution, withheld adjudication, deferred adjudication);

You must also explain why primary and secondary evidence are unavailable.

Failure to provide a copy of the petition approval notice or printout from the DV Entrant Status Check page of the DOS Electronic Diversity Visa system will not, by itself, result in a denial of your application. However, failure to provide a copy of these documents may result in processing delays or in the rejection of your application. See the Specific Instructions section of these Instructions for more information.

Place this fee receipt on top of your Form I-601A when you submit your application. See the Specific Instructions section of these Instructions for more information.

NOTE: If you are applying for a provisional unlawful presence waiver based on your selection as a DV Program selectee or derivative, you do not need to provide a copy of the DOS immigrant visa processing fee receipt with your provisional unlawful presence waiver application.

Relationship to Qualifying Relative

If you are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved family-sponsored immigrant visa petition and claim extreme hardship to a U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent who is the immigrant visa petitioner, you do not need to present evidence of your relationship to the petitioner. The immigrant visa petitioner will have already presented this evidence when he or she filed the immigrant visa petition (Form I-130 or Form I-360).

You must submit evidence that shows the qualifying relationship if:

1. You are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved employment-based immigrant visa petition;
2. You are a DV Program selectee or derivative; or
3. You are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved family-sponsored immigrant visa petition and you claim extreme hardship to a qualifying relative who is not the immigrant visa petitioner.

You must submit the following evidence to establish the relationship.

 - B. If either you or your spouse were previously married, copies of documents showing that all prior marriages were legally terminated.
2. To your mother:

 - D. If you were born out of wedlock and were not legitimated before reaching 18 years of age, you must include any evidence establishing that a bona fide parent-child relationship existed between you and your father while you were unmarried and under 21 years of age. You may include evidence that your father lived with you, supported you, or otherwise showed continuing parental interest in your welfare.

4. To your step-parent:

- A. A copy of your birth certificate that shows your parents' names;
- B. A copy of the marriage certificate between your natural parent and step-parent that established the relationship before you reached 18 years of age; and

Citizenship or LPR Status of a Qualifying Relative

If you are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved family-sponsored immigrant visa petition and claim extreme hardship to a U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent who is the immigrant visa petitioner, you do not need to present evidence of the immigrant visa petitioner's U.S. citizenship or LPR status. The immigrant visa petitioner will have already presented this evidence when he or she filed the immigrant visa petition (Form I-130 or Form I-360).

You must submit evidence that shows the qualifying relative is a U.S. citizen or LPR if:

- 1. You are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved employment-based immigrant visa petition;
- 2. You are a DV Program selectee or derivative; or
- 3. You are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved family-sponsored immigrant visa petition and you claim extreme hardship to a qualifying relative who is not the immigrant visa petitioner.

Evidence of U.S. citizenship includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

- 1. If your relative was born in the United States, a copy of his or her birth certificate, issued by a civil registrar, vital statistics office, or other civil authority of a U.S. state, county, municipal authority, or territory;
- 2. A copy of your relative's naturalization certificate or certificate of citizenship issued by USCIS or the former Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS);
- 3. A copy of your relative's unexpired U.S. passport; or
- 4. A copy of your relative's DOS-issued Form FS-240, Report of Birth Abroad of a Citizen of the United States.

Evidence of LPR status is established by submitting a copy of your qualifying relative's permanent resident card. You must submit a copy of the front and back of your qualifying relative's permanent resident card. If your qualifying relative has not yet received his or her permanent resident card, submit copies of the biographic pages of your qualifying relative's passport, and copies of the pages in your qualifying relative's passport, or any other USCIS or former INS issued evidence that shows your qualifying relative's LPR status.

Admission or Parole at a Port-of-Entry

If you claim in Part 1., Item Numbers 17. - 19., of the application that, on your last arrival in the United States, you were inspected by U.S. Customs and Border Protection at a port-of-entry, and then admitted or paroled, please submit your Form I-94, a copy of your passport with an admission or parole stamp or other DHS-issued evidence of your admission or parole.

If you cannot produce this evidence, and DHS has no record of the admission or parole, USCIS will presume that you came into the United States without inspection and admission or parole.

You may, however, provide secondary evidence (records maintained in the ordinary course of business by any individual or organization other than DHS) to support your claim that you were admitted or paroled.

If no secondary evidence is available, you may submit written statements, signed under penalty of perjury under United States law, from yourself and from any other individuals who have personal knowledge of the circumstances of your claimed admission or parole.

Extreme Hardship

You may submit any evidence to support your claim that your qualifying relative would experience extreme hardship if you are refused admission to the United States and your U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent must remain in the United States without you or relocate abroad to reside with you outside of the United States. Factors USCIS considers when determining extreme hardship include, but are not limited to:

- 1. Health. Examples include: Ongoing or specialized treatment required for a physical or mental condition, availability or quality of such treatment in the foreign country, anticipated treatment duration, whether the condition is long term, and whether it is chronic or acute;
- 2. Financial considerations. Examples include: Future employability, loss due to sale of home or business or termination of a professional practice, a decline in standard of living, ability to recoup short-term losses, cost of extraordinary needs (such as special education or training for children with special needs), or the cost of care for family members such as elderly or sick parents;
- 3. Education. Examples include: Loss of opportunity for higher education, lower quality or limited scope of education options, disruption of a current program, requirement to be educated in a foreign language or culture with ensuing loss of time or grade, and availability of special requirements, such as training programs or internships in specific fields;
- 4. Personal considerations. Examples include: Close relatives in the United States and country of birth or citizenship, separation from spouse or children, ages of involved parties, and length of residence and community ties in the United States; and
- 5. Special factors. Examples include: Cultural, language-related, religious, and ethnic obstacles; valid fears of persecution, physical harm, or injury; social ostracism or stigma; and lack of access to social institutions or structures (official or unofficial) that provide support, guidance, or protection.

Evidence of extreme hardship includes, but is not limited to:

- 1. Expert opinions;
- 2. Evidence of employment or business ties (for example, payroll records or tax statements);
- 3. Evidence of monthly expenditures (for example, receipts from mortgage, rental or bill payments);
- 4. Other financial records that support any claimed financial hardships;
- 5. Medical documentation or evaluations by medical professionals that support any claimed medical hardships;
- 6. Records of membership in community organizations or confirmation of volunteer service, and evidence of cultural affiliations;
- 7. Certificates of birth, marriage, or adoption that support any claimed family ties;
- 8. Affidavits or statements signed under the penalty of perjury (as permitted by 28 USC 1746), or letters from the qualifying relative or other individuals with personal knowledge of the claimed hardships.
- 9. Country condition reports; and
- 10. Any other evidence you believe supports the claimed extreme hardships.

NOTE: USCIS will consider extreme hardship only to a qualifying relative. If you describe extreme hardship to yourself or anyone other than a qualifying U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent, you must show how this extreme hardship affects the extreme hardship your qualifying U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent would experience if you are refused admission to the United States.

Establishing That Your Case Warrants A Favorable Exercise of Discretion

Approval of Form I-601A is discretionary. To determine if your case warrants a favorable exercise of discretion, USCIS will review the evidence in the records and weigh all favorable and unfavorable factors when deciding whether to approve your application as a matter of discretion. You should describe the favorable and unfavorable factors in your case and explain why you think the favorable factors should be given more weight.

Some favorable factors may include, but are not limited to:

1. Close family ties in the United States;
2. Hardship to your relatives who are U.S. citizens or LPRs, or to yourself, or your employer in the United States;
3. Evidence of reformation and rehabilitation;
4. Length of lawful presence in the United States and your immigration status while you were lawfully present;
5. Evidence of respect for law and order, good moral character, and family responsibilities or intent to hold family responsibilities;
6. Absence of significant undesirable or negative factors; and
7. Likelihood that you will become an LPR in the near future.

Some unfavorable factors may include, but are not limited to:

1. Evidence of bad moral character, including criminal tendencies reflected by past convictions or an ongoing unlawful activity or continuing police record;
2. Repeated violations of U.S. immigration laws and a willful disregard for other laws;
3. Absence of close family ties or hardships;
4. Fraudulent marriage to a U.S. citizen for the purpose of gaining an immigration benefit; and
5. Unauthorized employment in the United States.

What Is the Filing Fee?

The filing fee for Form I-601A is $630. A biometric services fee of $85 is also required for a total fee of $715. You may not request a fee waiver for the Form I-601A filing fee or biometric services fee.

NOTE: The filing fee and biometric services fee are not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your checks or money orders for the Form I-601A filing fee and biometric services fee:

1. The checks or money orders must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the checks or money orders payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

Notice to Those Making Payment by Check. If you send us a check, USCIS will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, USCIS will re-submit the payment to the financial institution one time. If the check is returned as unpayable a second time, we will reject your application and charge you a returned check fee.
