Becoming a citizen through naturalization: The application process	Eligibility	(IF USER REACHED THE END OF THE ELIGIBILITY TOOL AND RECEIVED A 'YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE' CONFIRMATION SCREEN) You may be eligible for naturalization because [eligibility basis].  If you think this eligibility basis is incorrect, you can change it after you start your application.  (IF USER SKIPS ELIGIBILITY TOOL OR RECEIVED A 'YOU MAY NOT BE ELIGIBLE' CONFIRMATION SCREEN) You will need to select your basis for eligibility after you start your application.
	Cost	If you are under 75 years old, the application fee is $680. This includes the $595 standard fee plus an $85 biometrics service fee. If you are 75 years or older, there is no biometrics fee, so the fee is $595.	The application fee is $680. This includes the $595 standard fee plus an $85 biometric services fee. The biometric services fee is required regardless of where the applicant lives and whether the applicant is filing from within the United States or abroad.
	Filing online	Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form, and they both gather the same information (and cost the same).
	Security	If you do not work on your application for more than 30 days, we will delete your data in order to prevent storing personal information indefinitely. If your data are deleted, you can restart the application at any time.

What happens after I apply?	Biometrics appointment	A few weeks after you submit your application, we will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature.	A few weeks after you submit your application, we will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your biometrics. If you are currently outside the United States, you must submit two properly completed Form FD-258 fingerprint cards with your Form N-400. The FD-258 cards must be completed at an authorized site such as a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or U.S. military installation. Every individual who is an applicant, petitioner, derivative, beneficiary, or sponsor of an immigration benefit request or other request submitted to USCIS is required to submit biometrics unless USCIS waives or exempts the requirement. You will be notified of the time and place of your appointment if you must appear and you will be provided requirements for rescheduling if necessary. If you fail to submit any biometrics as required, USCIS may deny your application, petition, or request. DHS may store the biometrics submitted by an individual and use or reuse biometrics to conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), verify identity, produce documents, determine eligibility for immigration and naturalization benefits, or to perform any other functions necessary for administering and enforcing immigration and naturalization laws, and any other law within DHS authority.
			Request for evidence If we need more information, we will contact you by email and through a written notice in the mail to ask for other documents. This may happen before or after your interview.

	Interview	After your biometrics appointment, we will schedule your interview at a local USCIS field office (unless you qualify for a special accommodation). At the interview, you will answer questions about your application, then take the civics and English tests if required.
	Oath of Allegiance	Once your application is approved, you will be ready to take the Oath of Allegiance! At your naturalization ceremony, you will return your Permanent Resident Card, answer questions about your activity since the interview, take the Oath of Allegiance, and get your Certificate of Naturalization.
Start your application		Before the start of the Application for Naturalization (N-400), you may want to gather the documents you will need to support your application. The other documents you need will depend on the information you provide in the application form (such as your personal history, family, and circumstances).
	DHS Privacy Notice	AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this application, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act section 334 [8 U.S.C. 1445]. PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this application is to determine if you have established eligibility for naturalization. DHS uses the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit you are seeking.

Getting Started	Basis for eligibility						Before you start your application, here are a few things to know 1. Make sure you are applying with the right basis for eligibility, either by using the basis shown or selecting your basis from the list of options on the next page. 2. You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your application experience. 3. You should provide as many responses as you can throughout the application, to the best of your knowledge. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your application. 4. We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the application. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on your application.
							Information about your eligibility The basis for eligibility shown here reflects your answers to questions about your lawful permanent residency, age, and other factors. If this statement is not accurate, or you chose not to determine your eligibility, you can change your basis of eligibility here.		We will have an eligibility path preselected; we will not present each basis for eligibility to users unless they want to manually select their eligibility basis

	Requests for accommodations	2.12	Do you have a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment that prevents you from demonstrating your knowledge and understanding of the English language and/or civics requirements for naturalization?	Yes/No	Radio		If you want to apply for a disability exception, your disability or impairment must affect your ability to read, write, or speak the English language or learn U.S. civics, even with accommodations. Your disability must have affected you for at least 1 year or be expected to last longer than 1 year. If you qualify for a disability exception, an interpreter who is fluent in English and the language of your choice must come with you to your interview.  You cannot qualify for a disability exception based on illiteracy.
		3.1	Are you requesting an accommodation because of your disabilities and/or impairments?	Yes/No	Radio		We will make every effort to make reasonable accommodations for applicants with disabilities who need modifications to the naturalization process in order to demonstrate their eligibility.  • If you use a wheelchair, we will make sure you can be fingerprinted, interviewed, and sworn in at a location that is wheelchair accessible. All domestic USCIS facilities meet the Accessibility Guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act. • If you are unable to travel to a designated USCIS location for an interview, USCIS may visit you at your home or a hospital to conduct the naturalization interview • If you use a service animal such as a guide dog, your animal may come with you to your interview, oath ceremony, or any other immigration benefit-related appointment  • If you are blind or have low vision, USCIS may permit you to take a test orally rather than in writing • If you are hearing impaired, the officer conducting your interview will speak loudly and slowly, or we will work with you to arrange for a sign language interpreter. If you require a sign language interpreter at the oath ceremony, your interview, or any other immigration benefit-related appointment, please indicate that here.
