Petition for Alien Relative			A citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States may file Petition for Alien Relative (I-130), with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to establish the existence of a relationship to certain alien relatives who wish to immigrate to the United States. Filing the I-130 is only the first step in helping a relative immigrate to the United States. Eligible family members must wait until there is a visa number available before they can apply to become a lawful permanent resident. If, at that time, your relative is present in the United States, they can apply for lawful permanent resident status through a process called Adjustment of Status. However, if your relative is outside of the United States, they must complete consular processing with the U.S. Department of State at an embassy or consulate to first get an immigrant visa and travel to the United States to be admitted as a lawful permanent resident. Review the Petition for an Alien Relative (I-130) page for links to the paper form.
Before you start your application	Eligibility		1. If you are a U.S. citizen, you must file a separate Form I-130 for each eligible relative. You may file Form I-130 for: Your spouse; Your unmarried children under 21 years of age; Your unmarried sons or daughters 21 years of age or older; Your married sons or daughters of any age; Your brothers or sisters (you must be 21 years of age or older); and Your mother or father (you must be 21 years of age or older). 2. If you are a lawful permanent resident of the United States, you must file a separate Form I-130 for each eligible relative. You may file Form I-130 for: Your spouse; Your unmarried child under 21 years of age; and Your unmarried son or daughter 21 years of age or older. NOTE: Non-citizen U.S. nationals (as defined in the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 308) have the same rights as lawful permanent residents to petition for family members. If you are a U.S. national born in American Samoa or Swains Island (or who otherwise qualifies as a non-citizen U.S. national, as described in INA section 308), you should indicate in the Additional Information about you section of the petition that you are a lawful permanent resident. You do not need to list an Alien Registration Number (A-Number) when completing this section of the form.
	Fee		Fee: $535 The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. There is no filing fee if you are a member or veteran of any branch of the U.S. Armed Forces filing on your own behalf. Children of members or veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces are required to pay the filing fee. Refund Policy USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. You further agree that the filing fee, biometric fee, and any other paid costs related to this financial transaction are final and not refundable. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.	Fee: $535.
