

U.S. Office of Personnel Management

Research Participant Consent Form: Unmoderated Research Session

Session Description

You are being asked to participate in a research study conducted by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM). By participating in this session, you will help OPM improve its websites, digital tools, and business processes for its customers.

Your session may last between 10 and 30 minutes, depending on the type of study. We will ask you survey questions and/or capture how you use a website or website prototype. We will capture answers to any questions you answer as well as any interactions (clicks/taps) you make on the screen.

Consent

I agree to participate in this research study conducted by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM). I understand that participation in this study is voluntary and I may quit the session at any time. If I have questions after the session is over, I can contact OPM at research@opm.gov.

I understand and consent to the use and release of the information discussed in this session. I understand that the information is for research purposes only and that my identity will remain anonymous. I relinquish any rights to the information provided in this study. I expressly OPM from and against any and all claims, which I have or may have for invasion of privacy, defamation, or any other cause of action arising out of the production, distribution, display, or publication of the results of the session or study, as the conditions described above are met.

By clicking Continue, you indicate agreement with the terms above, that you have read and you understand the information on this page, and that any questions you might have about the session have been answered.
