TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: ORWH Course Registration Form

PURPOSE: The Office of Research on Women’s Health is releasing a series of interprofessional education courses. The courses are intended for researchers, clinicians, graduate students, and health professionals. This registration form will be used for ORWH interprofessional education courses, which currently include: “Bench to Bedside – Integrating Sex and Gender to Improve Health” and “Sex As a Biological Variable – A Primer.” The “ORWH Course Registration Form” will collect the following information from registrants:

- Contact information
- Basic demographic information
- Education history: degree(s) received, field(s) of study and year of degree
- Work sector (public, private, academic, other)
- Research career stage

The “ORWH Course Registration Form” will help ORWH characterize learners and identify opportunities for targeted outreach. The information will also be instructive as ORWH develops future course topics.

A PIA has been completed and approved for this information collection.
