

NCI CRCHD Professional Development Workshop and Mentored Mock Review

Registration Is Now Open!

On behalf of the Center to Reduce Cancer Health Disparities (CRCHD), I am pleased to announce that the registration for the upcoming 2020 Professional Development Workshop and Mentored Mock Review (PDW & MMR) is open. The PDW & MMR will be held on Monday, June 8 and Tuesday, June 9, 2020, at the Bethesda North Marriott Hotel and Conference Center in Rockville, MD.

The theme for the Workshop is 2020 Vision for the Future: Enhancing your Competitive Edge. At this meeting, CRCHD will focus on sharing information and experiences with recipients of CRCHD training awards. Tools to assist with career development and advancement in cancer and cancer health disparities research also will be provided. Your attendance and feedback are very much appreciated.

Graduate students, postdocs, and early-career investigators who are supported by CRCHD are strongly encouraged to attend. As a reminder, K awardees are required to attend the Professional Development Workshop and Mentored Mock Review at least two times during the duration of their awards.

For additional information and to register for the upcoming meeting, please click here.

Here are a few deadlines to consider:
Abstract Submission: Friday, April 3, 2020
Registration: Tuesday, May 5, 2020
Hotel Reservations: Tuesday, May 5, 2020

Career Development (K Awards) and iCURE grantees are required to submit an abstract. All other CRCHD grantees are encouraged to submit an abstract.

If you require additional information about the logistics of the workshop, please contact Michelle Murray of NOVA Research Company at 240-752-7237, or you may email your questions or comments to conferences@novaresearch.com.

We look forward to seeing you at the 2020 Professional Development Workshop and Mentored Mock Review on June 8–9, 2020.

Thank you.
