Instructions for Civil Service Retirement System Survivor Annuitant Express Pay Application for Death Benefits

You cannot use this application if —

- You were not married to the retiree when he or she died.
- You are entitled to another survivor annuity under the Civil Service Retirement System or any other retirement system for Government employees.

Complete each item on the application form and include a copy of the death certificate.

Return the application and death certificate in the enclosed envelope within 30 days or call us at 1-888-767-6738 if you need additional time to apply.

Application from Current Spouse

You can use this form to apply for recurring monthly survivor annuity payments if:

- you were married to the deceased at the time of his or her death for at least nine months, and
- your spouse elected to receive a reduced annuity to provide you with a survivor benefit.

The nine month duration of marriage requirement does not apply if your spouse's death was accidental or you and the deceased had a child.

Children's Eligibility

Children born to the deceased and children the deceased adopted are eligible for monthly survivor annuity payments if:

- they are not married and under age 18,
- they are not married, are full-time students, and are age 18 to age 22,
- they are not married, age 18 or older, and OPM has already determined that they are disabled.

Payments to the Deceased

Any checks the retiree failed to negotiate must be returned to the U.S. Department of the Treasury. These checks are not negotiable by law. The Office of Personnel Management will authorize the lump-sum payment of any monies due the retiree as soon as possible. The lump sum will be paid to the person who is legally entitled to it.

The U.S. Department of the Treasury will recover any payments to the retiree deposited by Electronic Funds Transfer after the retiree died.

Payments to You

We have already started payments to you. These payments will be suspended after 60 days if we do not receive your application or you do not contact us.

If your payment includes your annuity and the annuity for your children, you are obligated to inform us if a child marries or if a disabled child recovers from the disability.

Direct Deposit Program/Direct Express Debit Card

The Department of the Treasury is no longer issuing paper checks to pay benefits to persons who live in the United States or in places where Electronic Funds Transfer [Direct Deposit/Direct Express] is available. To enroll in the Direct Deposit program, contact us or complete Standard Form 1199A, Direct Deposit Sign-Up Form, which you can get at your financial institution. To obtain a Direct Express card, go to www.godirect.org or call the Department of the Treasury at 1-800-333-1795.

Privacy Act Statement

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552a(e)(3), this Privacy Act Statement serves to inform you of why OPM is requesting the information on this form. Authority: OPM is authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to Sections 8341 and 8342 of title 5, U. S. Code, which, provides for two types of death benefits: survivor benefits and lump-sum payments. Survivor annuities may be payable to a spouse, former spouse, and eligible dependent children upon the death of an employee or annuitant. OPM is authorized to collect your Social Security number by Executive Order 9397 (November 22, 1943), as amended by Executive Order 13478 (November 18, 2008). Purpose: OPM is requesting this information to pay solely benefits to the widows or widowers of Civil Service Retirement System annuitants. Routine Uses: The information requested on this form may be shared as a "routine use" to other Federal agencies and third-parties when it is necessary to process your application. For example, OPM may share your information with other Federal, state, or local agencies and organizations in order to determine benefits under their programs, to obtain information necessary for a determination of your disability retirement benefits, or to report income for tax purposes. OPM may also share your information with law enforcement agencies if it becomes aware of a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law. A complete list of the routine uses can be found in the OPM/CENTRAL 1 Civil Service Retirement and Insurance Records system of records notice, available at www.opm.gov/privacy. Consequences of Failure to Provide Information: Providing this information is voluntary. However, failure to provide this information may result in the noncompliance of the provisions of Title 5, U. S. Code, Sections 8341 and 8342. Individuals who do not provide this information can also request changes via telephone or letter, as well as using RI 25-51. The information collected can only be obtained from the respondents.

Public Burden Statement

We estimate providing this information takes an average 30 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, getting the needed data, and reviewing the requested information. Send comments regarding our estimate or any other aspect of this form including suggestions for reducing completion time, to the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, Retirement and Benefits Publications Team (3206-0233), Washington D.C. 20415-0001.
