

SUPPORTING STATEMENT
FOR THE PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT INFORMATION COLLECTION
SUBMISSION FOR SECURITIES ACT RULE 173

A. JUSTIFICATION

1 And 2. Circumstances Making the Collection of Information Necessary and Purpose and Use of the Information Collection

The Commission adopted Rule 173 on July 19, 2005, in connection with Release 33-8591 (“Securities Offering Reform”). Under the Commission’s rules, a final prospectus must accompany or precede a written confirmation of the sale and delivery of a security in a public offering. Securities Act Rule 172 states that a final prospectus is deemed to precede or accompany the delivery of a security if the final prospectus is filed within the time period required under Securities Act Rule 424. Rule 173 provides that a notice of sale can be sent to securities purchasers within two days after the sale was made in lieu of a final prospectus.

We estimate that 100% of the total burden hours of 3,881,891 hours (0.0167 hours per response x 232,448,548 responses). We derived our burden hour estimates by estimating the average number of hours it would take an issuer to compile the necessary information and data, prepare and review disclosure, file documents and retain records. In connection with rule amendments to the form, we occasionally receive PRA estimates from public commenters about incremental burdens that are used in our burden estimates. We believe that the actual burdens will likely vary among individual issuers based on the nature of their operations. For administrative convenience, the presentation of the total related to the paperwork burden hours have been rounded to the nearest whole number. The estimated burden hours are made solely for the purpose of the Paperwork Reduction Act.
