

Child Welfare Data Elements Used for Sampling and Analysis

Data Type	Data Elements	Sampling and Analytic Use
Person ID	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Links event-level variables for construction of child-level files ▪ For sampled youth and surveyed youth who consent to data linkage, links among data files 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ File management
Date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Demographic characteristics 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Sample description and stratification
Maltreatment allegations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Aggregate to maltreatment type (child neglect, physical abuse, psychological abuse, sexual abuse, human trafficking, other) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Types of maltreatment experienced
Investigations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Investigation number (links events within investigation) ▪ Received date ▪ Closed date ▪ Maltreatment type ▪ Most serious finding for each maltreatment type 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Age at first and most recent investigation, by maltreatment type ▪ Number of investigations, by maltreatment type ▪ Number of substantiated allegations, by maltreatment type
Removals / placements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Removal begin date ▪ Begin and end dates for each placement within a removal episode ▪ Type of placement(s) ▪ Exit reason for each placement ▪ Reason for end of removal episode 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Age at first and most recent removal episodes ▪ Total time spent in out-of-home care ▪ Number and types of placements ▪ Exit status for placement and removal episodes
Missing child reports	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Report date ▪ Risk indicators associated with missing report (e.g., gang involved) ▪ Recover date ▪ Return status (located, aged out, etc.) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Age at first and most recent missing-from-care episodes ▪ Total time missing from care ▪ Temporal relationship between missing-from-care and trafficking experiences