Paperwork Reduction Act and Privacy Act Notices

This notice is given under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 and the Privacy Act of 1974. The information requested on this form is used by the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) to conduct a review of your performance as representative payee. The RRB's authority for requesting this information is section 7(b)(6) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1974.

Your obligation to provide the requested information is voluntary. However, your failure to respond can result in you being asked to complete a more detailed report and it may result in a suspension of benefit payments or, ultimately, your removal as representative payee.

The information you provide on this form may be disclosed without your approval to the individual or institution you identified in Item 3. Such information may also be disclosed without your approval to the Government Accountability Office for audits, to the Justice Department for collecting overpayments owed to the RRB or the Social Security Administration, to law enforcement agencies and in court proceedings.

A complete listing of the persons, organizations, and agencies to which the information you give us may be released is available at any office of the RRB, if you wish to see it.

We estimate this form takes an average of 5 minutes per response to complete, including the time for reviewing the instructions, getting the needed data, and reviewing the completed form. Federal agencies may not conduct or sponsor, and respondents are not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB number. If you wish, send comments regarding the accuracy of our estimate or any other aspect of this form, including suggestions for reducing completion time, to Associate Chief Information Officer for Policy and Compliance, Railroad Retirement Board, 844 North Rush Street, Chicago Illinois 60611-1275.
