Last year you attended a 4-day MCH Epidemiology training course in <<insert location; changes annually>> that was sponsored by the Maternal and Child Health Bureau in partnership with CityMatCH and the Centers for Disease and Control and Prevention. This training included the following topics <<topics can change from year to year based on feedback, emerging issues/needs, etc>>:

- needs assessment and prioritization methods
- program evaluation
- descriptive and multivariable modeling
- analytic methods for performance measurement
- trend analysis
- absolute and relative measures of association
- effective data translation and reporting

Training methods included webinars, in-person lectures, group exercises, and opportunities for individual technical assistance both during and after the in-person courses. As part of our ongoing evaluation efforts, we are writing to you now to find out whether you have been able to apply the skills you acquired or enhanced at the training in your professional role. Your responses to these 5 brief questions will help us evaluate the impact of this training and opportunities to improve effectiveness.

Thank you in advance for your response, <<Grantee signature>>
