EARNINGS CORRECTIONS SCREEN PACKAGE CHANGES: Dec. 2020

2.4.2. Earnings Correction Overview: 'What kind of evidence can I provide?' modal
ORIGINAL

Proof of Correct Earnings ✖

ℹ️ In order to complete processing of your earnings correction request, you will need to submit evidence to support your claim. Correction Requests submitted without evidence could take significantly longer than 90 days to make a determination.

The best types of proof that will help us correct your earnings record are either:
- Copies of your Form W-2 (except copy A) for the year(s) you believe are wrong. A photocopy is acceptable; or
- A signed statement from your employer or the person who keeps your employer's records; we need the original statement.

If you do not have any of the proof of earnings listed above, please submit two items from the list below:
- Exact copy of Federal or State income tax returns;
- Pay envelopes or statements;
- Unemployment compensation award letters; or
- Union records of dues and wages.

Whatever evidence you submit should include your employer's information from the year containing incorrect earnings, the correct earnings information, and evidence of the correct earnings (W2, tax records, etc.) if available.
