Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(b) and 205(c) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed.

We will use the information you provide to make a determination for eligibility of benefits. We may also share the information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To the Department of Treasury for: (a) Collecting Social Security taxes or as otherwise pertinent to tax and benefit payment provisions of the Social Security Act, including SSN verification services; and (b) investigating alleged theft, forgery or unlawful negotiation of Social Security checks; and
- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. We will disclose information under this routine use only in situations in which we may enter into a contractual or similar agreement to obtain assistance in accomplishing an SSA function relating to this system of records.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORNs) 60-0059, Earnings Recording and Self-Employment Income System, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1819; 60-0089, Claims Folders System, as published in the FR on October 31, 2019, at 84 FR 58422; 60-0090, Master Beneficiary Record, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1826; and 60-0320, Electronic Disability (eDIB) Claim File, as published in the FR on June 4, 2020, at 85 FR 34477.
