Privacy Act Statement Collection of Personal Information

Sections 205, 1631(d)(1), and 1872 of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may affect our ability to reevaluate the decision on the benefit eligibility of the named claimant.

We will use the information to evaluate the reason for failing to appear at the scheduled hearing. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- 1. To a congressional office in response to an inquiry from that office made at the request of the subject of a record; and
- 2. To third party contacts in situations where the party to be contacted has, or is expected to have, information relating to the individual's capability to manage his/her affairs or his/her eligibility for or entitlement to benefits under the Social Security program when the individual is unable to provide information being sought. An individual is considered to be unable to provide certain types of information when he/she is incapable of or questionable mental capability; he/she cannot read or write; a language barrier exists; or the data are needed to establish the validity of evidence to verify the accuracy of information presented by the individual, and it concerns his/her eligibility for benefits under the Social Security program.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0320, entitled Electronic Disability (eDIB) Claim File. Additional information and a full listing of all our SORNs are available on our website at www.ssa.gov/privacy/sorn.html.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement - This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U. S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. We estimate that it will take about 10 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. Send only comments relating to our time estimate above to: SSA, 6401 Security Blvd, Baltimore, MD 21235-6401.
