

Job Corps Hall of Fame Candidate Nomination Form

Each year, the Job Corps Hall of Fame recognizes a graduate who has achieved a high level of educational or career success as a result of participating in the Job Corps program. Annually highlighting a graduate’s success story, especially a graduate who epitomizes long-term career success and considers Job Corps to be the foundation for these achievements, is vital to demonstrating the program’s role in creating the workforce of today and tomorrow, and future influencers and community leaders.

To nominate a Job Corps graduate for the Job Corps Hall of Fame, please timely submit a completed nomination form. Self-nominations are permitted.

If making a nomination, please confirm that the nominee is willing to be considered for the Hall of Fame and undergo a background and reference check as a part of the nomination process before submitting this form.

Nominations for the [Year] are due by [Date]. E-mail the completed form and photo to [Hall of Fame e-mail address].
