Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-690
OMB No. 1615-0032
Expires 07/31/2021

What Is the Purpose of Form I-690?

An applicant for adjustment of status under Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 210 (Special Agricultural Workers) or 245A (Legalization, including LIFE Act Legalization) uses Form I-690 to apply for a waiver of inadmissibility.

Who Should Not File Form I-690?

You do not need to file Form I-690 for any inadmissibility ground that does not apply to Special Agricultural Worker (SAW) or Legalization applicants. The following inadmissibility grounds do not apply:

1. INA section 212(a)(5)(A) – Workers entering the United States without labor certification;
2. INA section 212(a)(6)(A)(i) – Aliens present without admission or parole; and
3. INA section 212(a)(7)(A)(i) – Documentation requirements (immigrants).

The following inadmissibility grounds cannot be waived. You should not file Form I-690 if any of the following inadmissibility grounds apply to you:

1. INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) – Crime involving moral turpitude (CIMT);

NOTE: You are not inadmissible for having committed a CIMT if the crime was a purely political offense; the crime was a CIMT but you committed only one CIMT, were under 18 years of age at the time you committed the crime, and were released from any confinement to a prison or correctional institution imposed for the crime more than 5 years before you filed your application for adjustment of status; or the crime was a CIMT but you committed only one CIMT, for which the maximum possible sentence is 1 year or less of imprisonment, and the actual sentence you received was 6 months or less.

2. INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) – Controlled substance violation of the laws and regulations of any country or U.S. state, except that a violation related to a single offense of simple possession of 30 grams or less of marijuana may be waived;
3. INA section 212(a)(2)(B) – Multiple criminal convictions;
4. INA section 212(a)(2)(C) – Controlled substance traffickers;
5. INA section 212(a)(3) – Security and related grounds; or
6. INA section 212(a)(4) – Public charge, except that Form I-687 applicants who are applying for Temporary Resident Status under INA section 245A may seek a waiver of the public charge ground, and the public charge ground of inadmissibility does not apply to Legalization (INA section 245A) applicants who are aged, blind, or disabled as defined by the Social Security Act. Form I-700 applicants, LIFE Act Form I-485 applicants, and Form I-698 applicants applying for lawful permanent resident status may not seek a waiver of the public charge ground of inadmissibility.

NOTE: As a SAW or Legalization applicant, you are not inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(4) even if your income is below the poverty level as long as you demonstrate a consistent employment history that shows the ability to support yourself without public cash assistance.

Who May File Form I-690?

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) may waive the following inadmissibility grounds at our discretion for humanitarian purposes, family unity, or in the public interest.

1. Applicants Who Require a Waiver of Inadmissibility Due to a Communicable Disease of Public Health Significance – INA Section 212(a)(1)(A)(i)

You must file this application if you seek a waiver of inadmissibility based on a communicable disease of public health significance as defined in 42 CFR 34.2(b) which include, but are not limited to:

- A. Class A Tuberculosis condition (as defined by Health and Human Services (HHS) regulations);
- B. Chancroid;
- C. Gonorrhea;
- D. Granuloma inguinale;
- E. Lymphogranuloma venereum;
- F. Syphilis, infectious stage;
- G. Leprosy, infectious; or
- H. Any other communicable disease as determined by the U.S. Secretary of HHS and as defined at 42 CFR 34.2(b).

If you have a Class A Tuberculosis condition, you and the physician or medical facility providing you with the required treatment must complete Supplement 1, Applicants With a Class A Tuberculosis Condition (As Defined by Health and Human Services Regulations). Additionally, a state health department official in the jurisdiction where you will reside must complete and sign Part 5. Endorsement of State Health Department Official. If you are outside of the United States, a relative in the United States must complete this process for you.

2. Applicants Requesting a Waiver of the Vaccination Requirements of INA Section 212(a)(1)(A)(ii) on Account of Religious or Moral Objection

If your waiver application is based on religious or moral objections to vaccinations, you must establish that:

- A. You object to vaccinations in any form;
- B. You object because of your religious beliefs or moral convictions (you do not need to be a member of a mainstream or recognized religion); and
- C. Your beliefs are sincere.

Additional Information About Vaccination Requirements Waivers

You are eligible for a blanket waiver of the vaccination requirement and do not need to file Form I-690 if:

- A. You did not initially submit proof you received the required vaccinations, but you subsequently submitted proof that you are now vaccinated; or
- B. The civil surgeon or the panel physician certified that one or more of the required vaccinations is not medically appropriate for you. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) instructions, the phrase “not medically appropriate” covers the following situations:
 - (1) The vaccination is not recommended by the Advisory Committee for Immunization Practices for your age group;
 - (2) The vaccination is medically inadvisable;
 - (3) There is not enough time between doses for vaccines requiring a series of doses; or
 - (4) It is not the flu season, or the vaccine for the specific flu strain is no longer available (for the flu vaccine only).

C. USCIS determines after consultation with the CDC that there is a nationwide vaccination shortage (for applicants in the United States) or that the vaccine is not available in the applicant's country (for applicants overseas).

3. Applicants Who Have a Physical or Mental Disorder With Associated Harmful Behavior Under INA Section 212(a)(1)(A)(iii)(I) or (II)

If the designated physician determines that you have a physical or mental disorder with associated harmful behavior, or a past history of a physical or mental disorder with associated harmful behavior that is likely to recur, the HHS regulations in 42 CFR 34 and the technical instructions published by the CDC require the medical examination report completed by the designated physician to contain at least the following information:

- A. A complete medical history, including the details of any previous or current hospitalization, treatment, or care;
- B. The current findings, diagnosis, and prognosis; and
- C. Any other information necessary for USCIS to determine, in consultation with HHS, the terms and conditions that should be imposed on the waiver, if it is granted.

4. Applicants Who Are Inadmissible Because of Drug Abuse or Addiction Under INA Section 212(a)(1)(A)(iv)

You must file this application if you seek a waiver of inadmissibility because you have been determined to be a drug abuser or drug addict. The designated physician determines whether you are currently using or in the past have used any controlled substance. The designated physician makes this determination during the required medical exam, according to the applicable HHS regulations at 42 CFR 34 and the Technical Instructions published by the CDC.

In addition to this application, you must submit:

- A. A copy of the immigration medical examination report and documentation (Form I-693 or Form DS-2054 and its related worksheets);
- B. A copy of any medical documentation related to Form I-693 or DS-2054 that provides details of the diagnosis, including: the specific substance or substances involved; the level of severity of the abuse or addiction; time periods of abuse or addiction; and any therapy administered, rehabilitation, remission, counseling, or referrals; and
- C. A copy of all other relevant medical reports, laboratory tests and results, and evaluations related to the drug abuse or addiction.

After consulting with HHS/CDC, USCIS will exercise its discretion to determine whether to approve a waiver. USCIS will not approve this waiver if you are inadmissible under any other grounds that are not waivable.

NOTE: You are not inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iv) (and so do not need to file this waiver application) if the designated physician determines you are in remission from previous drug abuse or addiction.

5. Applicants Who Are Inadmissible Due to a Controlled Substance Violation Related to a Single Offense of Simple Possession of 30 grams or Less of Marijuana – INA Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II)

You must file this application if you seek a waiver for a controlled substance violation related to a single offense of simple possession of 30 grams or less of marijuana. This is the only waivable controlled substance offense under INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II). Other controlled substance offenses are not waivable.

NOTE: If you admit to use of any controlled substance in violation of any law or regulation you may be inadmissible on criminal grounds under INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) relating to any controlled substance violation. See Item 4. above.

6. Applicants Who Are Inadmissible Based on Public Charge Under INA Section 212(a)(4)

USCIS cannot waive inadmissibility based on public charge under INA section 212(a)(4) except for Form I-687 applicants who apply for Temporary Residence under INA section 245A. You are not eligible for a waiver of the public charge ground if you are a Form I-700, LIFE Act Form I-485, or Form I-698 applicant applying for lawful permanent residence.

But, you are not inadmissible, even if your income is below the poverty level, as long as you demonstrate a consistent employment history that shows the ability to support yourself without public cash assistance.

And the public charge ground of inadmissibility does not apply to Legalization (INA section 245A) applicants who are aged, blind, or disabled as defined by the Social Security Act.

7. Other Inadmissibility Grounds

You may file Form I-690 if you are inadmissible under the following sections of law:

- A. INA section 212(a)(2)(D) – Prostitution and Commercialized Vice;
 - B. INA section 212(a)(2)(E) – Asserted Immunity from Prosecution;
 - C. INA section 212(a)(2)(G) – Particularly Severe Violations of Religious Freedom;

- NOTE: If you are applying for LIFE Act legalization, you may apply for a waiver of inadmissibility to overcome INA section 212(a)(9)(A) and INA section 212(a)(9)(C) (Aliens Unlawfully Present after Previous Immigration Violations) even if your removal order has been reinstated (under INA section 241(a)(5)). See 8 CFR 245a.18(c)(1).
- O. INA section 212(a)(10)(A), (B), (C), (D), (E) Miscellaneous – Practicing Polygamist or Guardian Required to Accompany Helpless Alien or International Child Abductor or Unlawful Voters or Former Citizens Who Renounced Citizenship to Avoid Taxation.

What Is the Filing Fee?

Payments by Check or Money Order

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your check or money order for the Form I-690 filing fee:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the check or money order payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

3. If you live outside the United States, contact the nearest U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate for instructions on the method of payment.

Notice to Those Paying by Check. If you send USCIS a check, we will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, we will re-submit the payment to the financial institution one time. If the check is returned as unpayable a second time, we will reject your application and charge you a returned check fee.

Payments by Credit Card

If you are filing your application at a USCIS Lockbox facility, you can pay your filing fee using a credit card. Please see Form G-1450, Authorization for Credit Card Transactions, at www.uscis.gov/G-1450 for more information.
