PROGRAM DETAILS

Students will be recognized and acknowledged by the White House Initiative on Historically Black Colleges and Universities (Initiative). Their formal recognition will last, one academic school year; during the course of an academic school year Initiative staff will inform recognized students of outreach and engagement opportunities that they can take advantage of or communicate to their fellow students.

Recognized students will also receive a formal invitation to attend the Annual HBCU Week Conference where they will engage with initiative staff and key stakeholders and participate professional development sessions and explore some of the many sites the nation's capital has to offer. Through personal and professional relationships with community-based organizations, public and private sector entities, selected students will share promising and proven practices with key stakeholders that support opportunities for all young people.

In addition, this opportunity will allow recognized students to participate in regional events, as well as, web chats facilitated by Initiative staff and other professionals from a wide range of disciplines that support a spirit of engagement and personal and professional development.
