Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) helps cover your inpatient care in hospitals. Medicare Part B (medical insurance) pays for most of the costs of physicians' and surgeons' services, and other covered medical services such as OUTPATIENT DIALYSIS TREATMENTS, which are not covered by Medicare Part A. Medicare Part B covers HOME DIALYSIS, including home dialysis equipment and supplies.

Medicare generally cannot pay for any of your hospital or medical bills unless you receive your medical care in the United States (including Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands and American Samoa).

8. ENROLLMENT IN MEDICARE PART B (MEDICAL INSURANCE)

If you enroll in Medicare Part B, you will have to pay a monthly premium. Your premium will be deducted from any monthly Social Security, Railroad Retirement, or Office of Personnel Management benefit payment you receive. If you do not receive such benefits, you will be notified how to pay your premiums. You will receive advance notice if there is any change in your premium amount.

Collection and Use of Information from your Application

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires the Social Security Administration to give the following facts to individuals from whom information about themselves is requested:

- the statutory authority for the request,
- whether it is mandatory or voluntary to give the information,
- the principal purpose(s) for which the information is needed,
- the effects of not providing the information, and
- the routine uses which may be made of the information.

These items are explained in the following sections. If you have any questions about your rights under the Privacy Act, you may contact any Social Security office.

- I. The Social Security Administration is authorized to collect the information on this form under 205(a), 226(A), and 1872 of the Social Security Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 405(a), 426, and 1395ii).
- II. While it is not mandatory, except in the circumstances explained below, for you to furnish the information on this form to Social Security, hospital insurance entitlement cannot be established unless an application has been received by a Social Security office. Your response is mandatory where the refusal to disclose certain information affecting your entitlement would reflect a fraudulent intent to secure benefits not authorized by the Social Security Act.
- III. The information on this form is needed to enable Social Security and the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) to determine if you are entitled to hospital insurance coverage.
- IV. Failure to provide all or part of this information could prevent an accurate and timely decision on your claim, and could result in the loss of some insurance coverage.
- V. Although the information you furnish on this form is almost never used for any other purpose than stated in Part III, above, there is a possibility that for the administration of the Social Security or CMS programs or for the administration of programs requiring coordination with Social Security or CMS, information may be disclosed to another person or to another governmental agency as follows:
  1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security or CMS in establishing rights to hospital insurance coverage.
  2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security or CMS records (e.g., to the General Accounting Office and the Veterans' Administration).
  3. To facilitate statistical research and audit activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of the Social Security or CMS programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and private concerns under contract to Social Security or CMS.)

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 0938-0080. The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to average 26 minutes per response, including the time to review instructions, search existing data resources, gather the data needed, and complete and review the information collection. If you have any comments concerning the accuracy of the time estimate(s) or suggestions for improving this form, please write to CMS, Attn: PRA Reports Clearance Officer, 7500 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21244-1850.
