Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Section 211(c)(6) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allows us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on the tax exemption eligibility for the religious group.

We will use the information to verify that members meet or continue to meet the criteria for exemption. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To officers and employees of Federal, State or local agencies upon written request in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) U.S.C. 6103(1)(7)), tax return information (e.g., information with respect to net earnings from self-employment, wages, payments of retirement income which have been disclosed to the Social Security Administration, and business and employment addresses) for purposes of, and to the extent necessary in, determining an individual's eligibility for, or the correct amount of, benefits under certain programs listed in the IRC; and
- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person' eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-00059, entitled Earnings Recording and Self-Employment Income System as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1819. Additional information and a full listing of all our SORNs is available on our website at https://www.ssa.gov/privacy.
