

YOU ARE INVITED

We want to hear about your experiences!

The Urban Institute, a non-profit research organization, would like to talk to young people who have received an Education and Training Voucher (ETV) [also called [local name of ETV program]] in a virtual group setting to better understand their experiences with ETVs.

We are looking for people 18 and over who have received ETVs in the last two years to participate in a discussion with other people on their experience receiving an ETV

Participation is voluntary. Each participant will receive a $25 gift card!

Staff from the Urban Institute plan to speak over video conference with those who are interested. Space is first come, first served.
